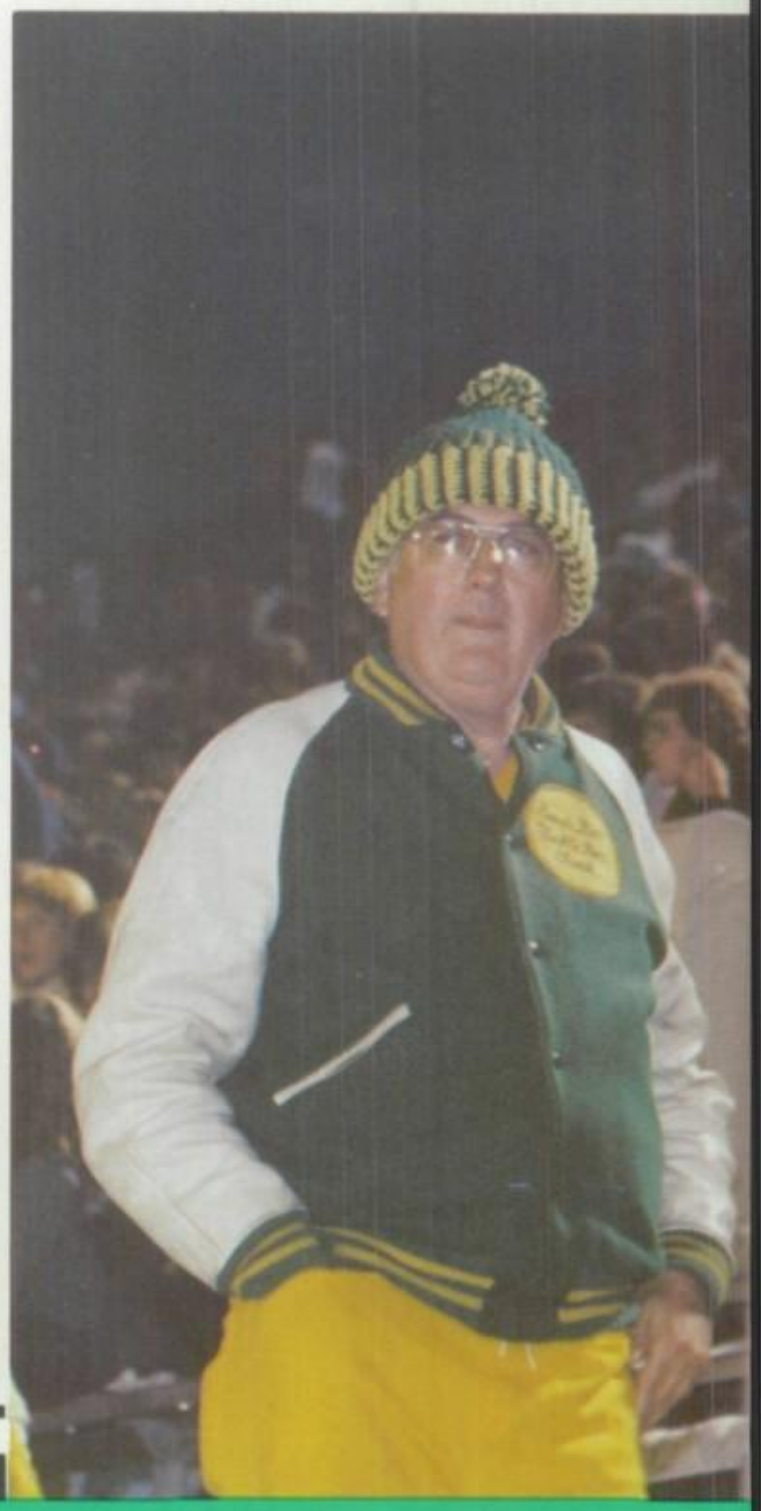
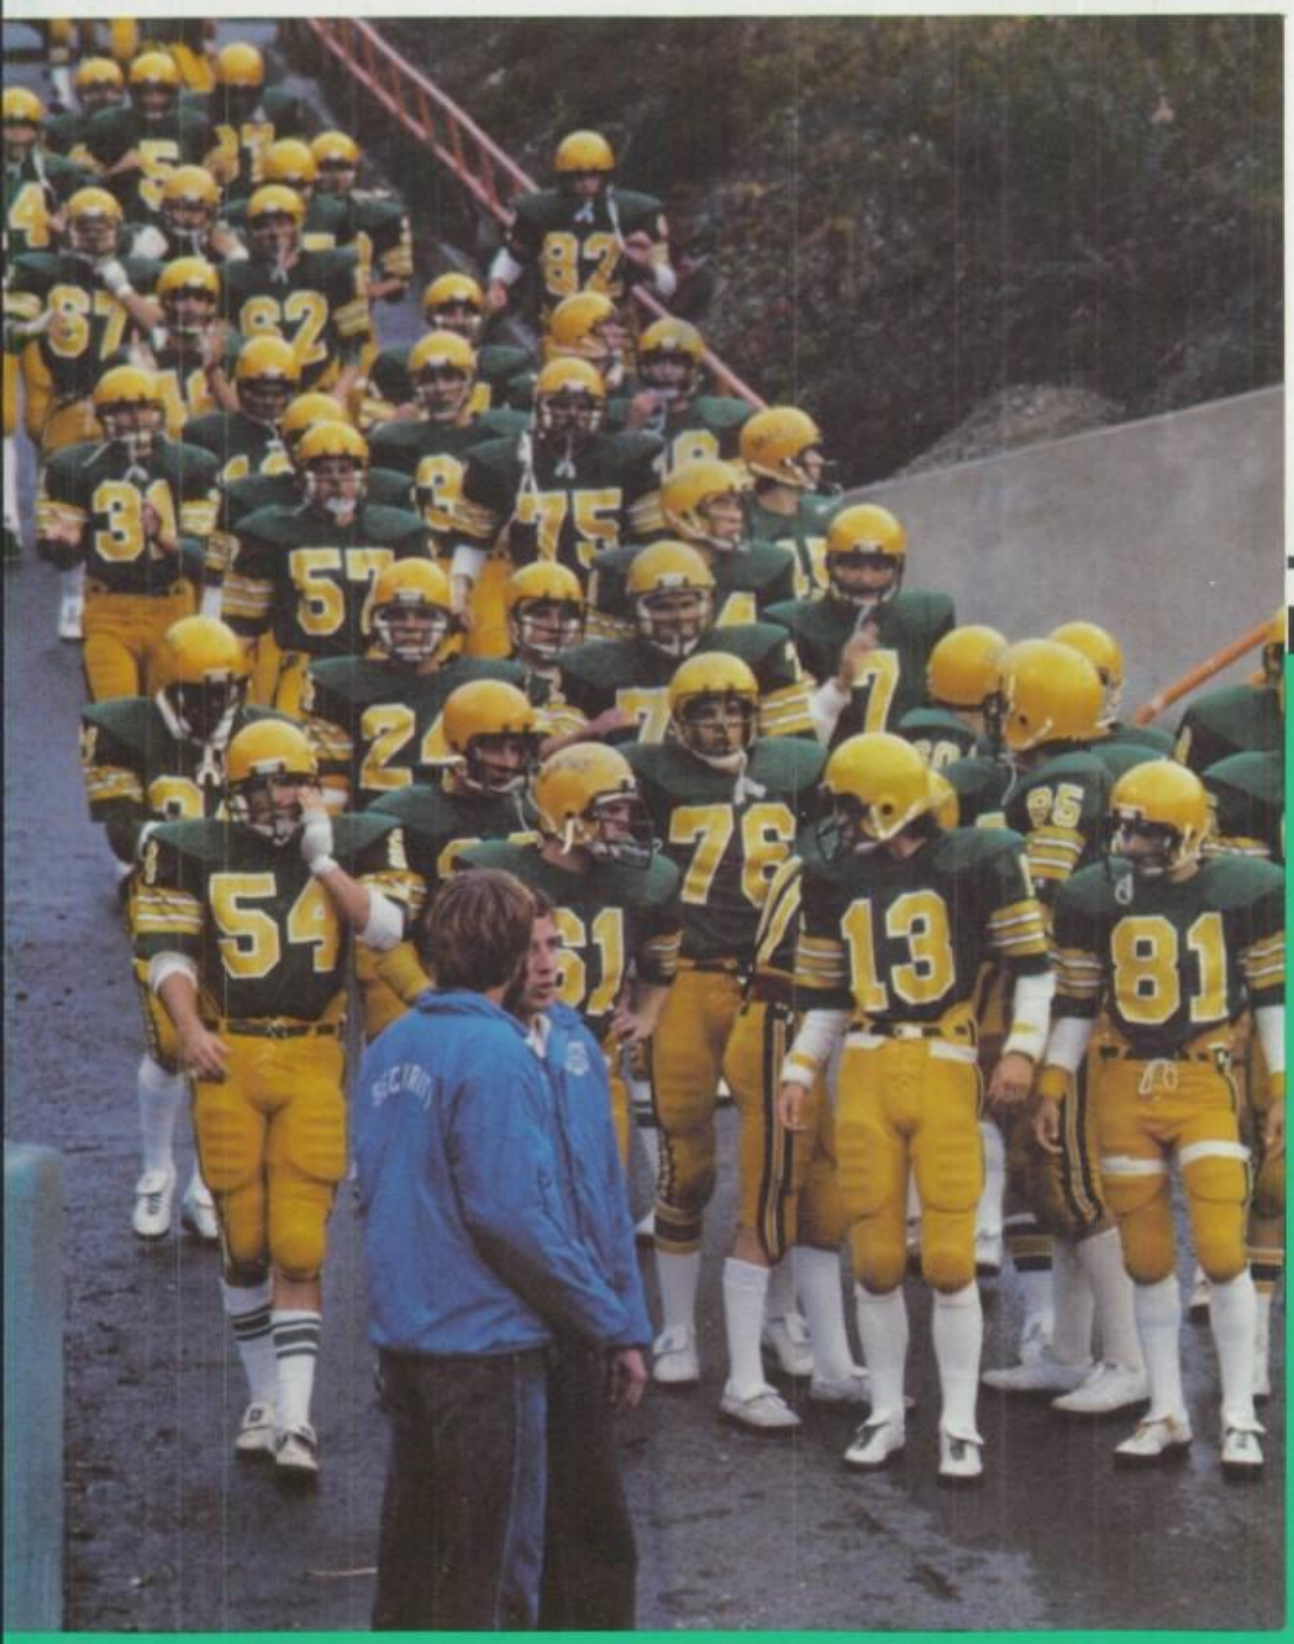
1983 was a time for upholding traditions,





wearing with pride our Green and Gold

It was also a time for making friends,

renewing friendships,
sharing feelings,
creating memories

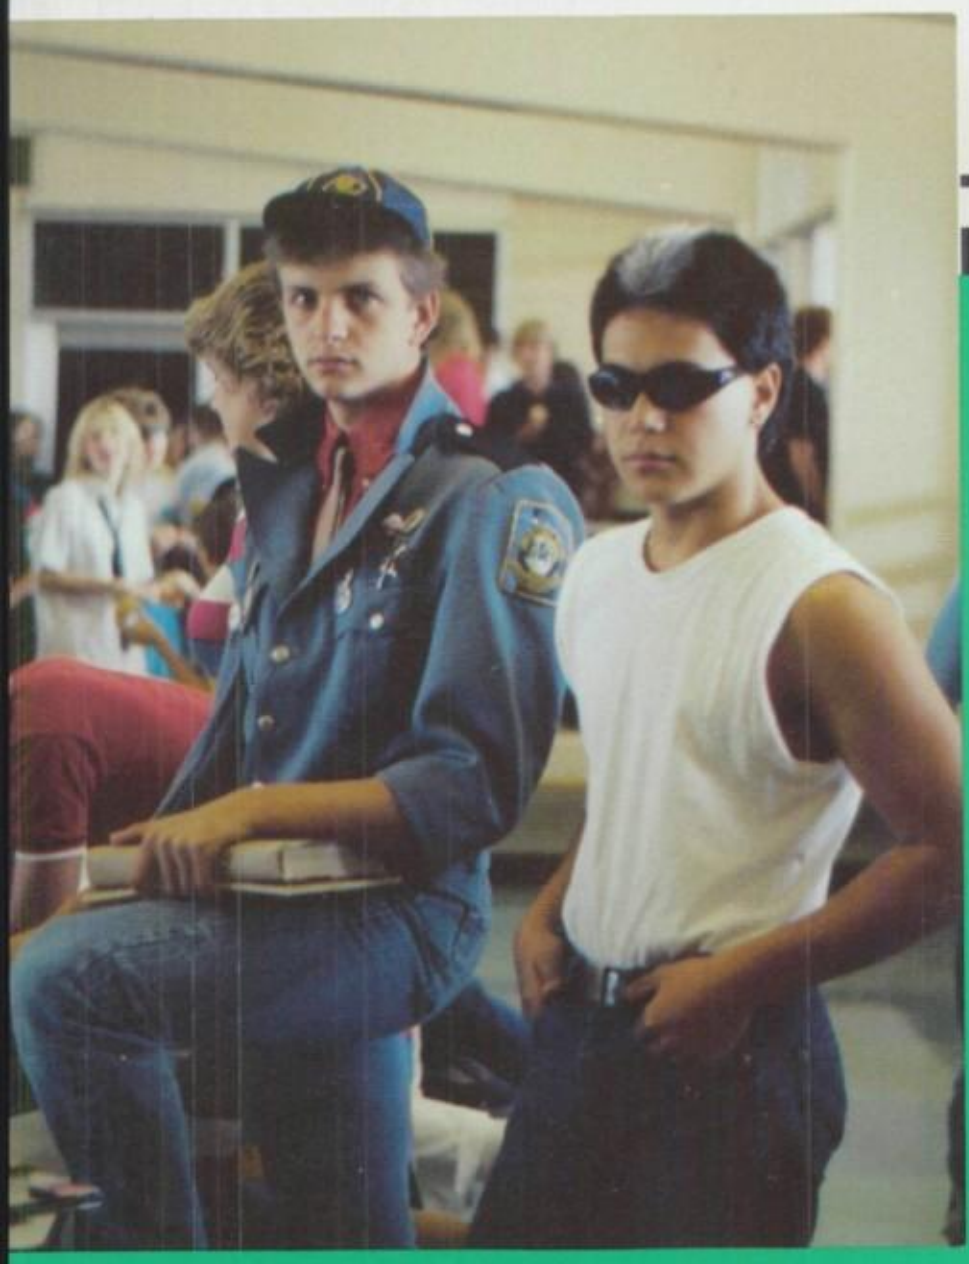
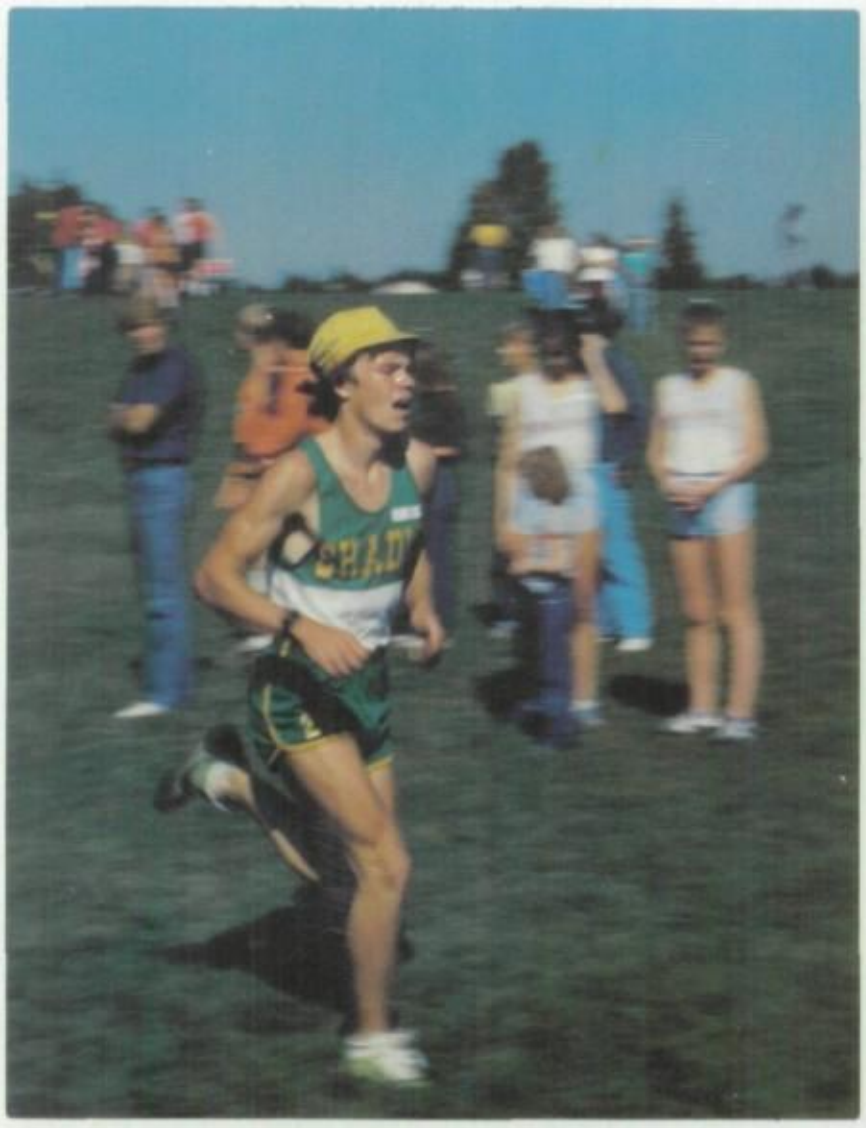
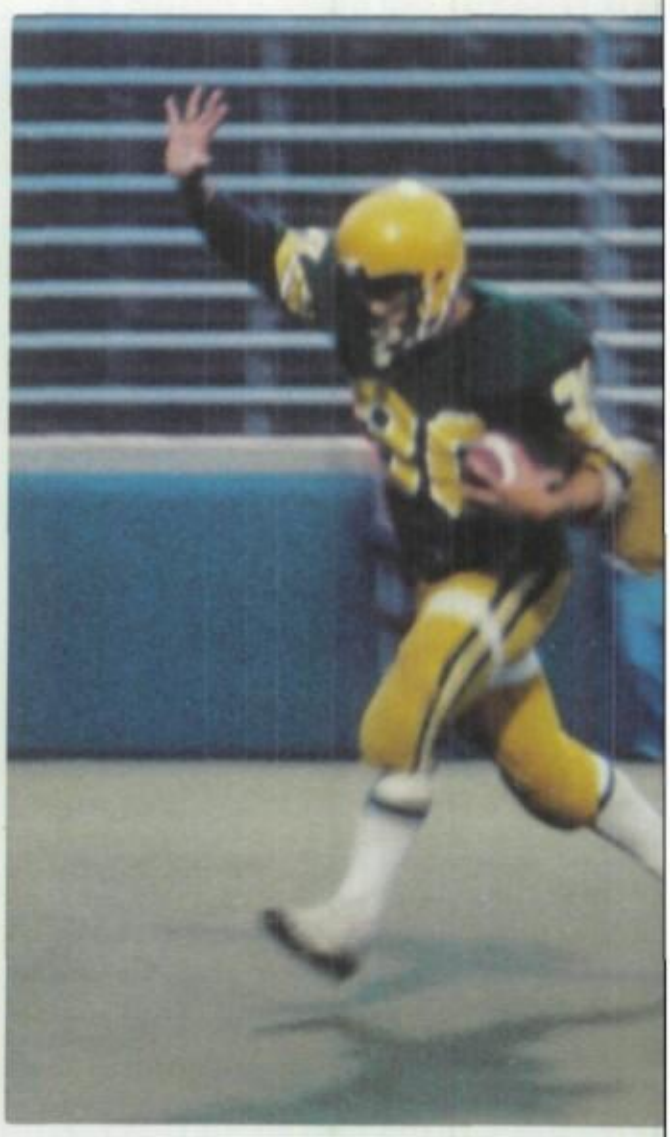
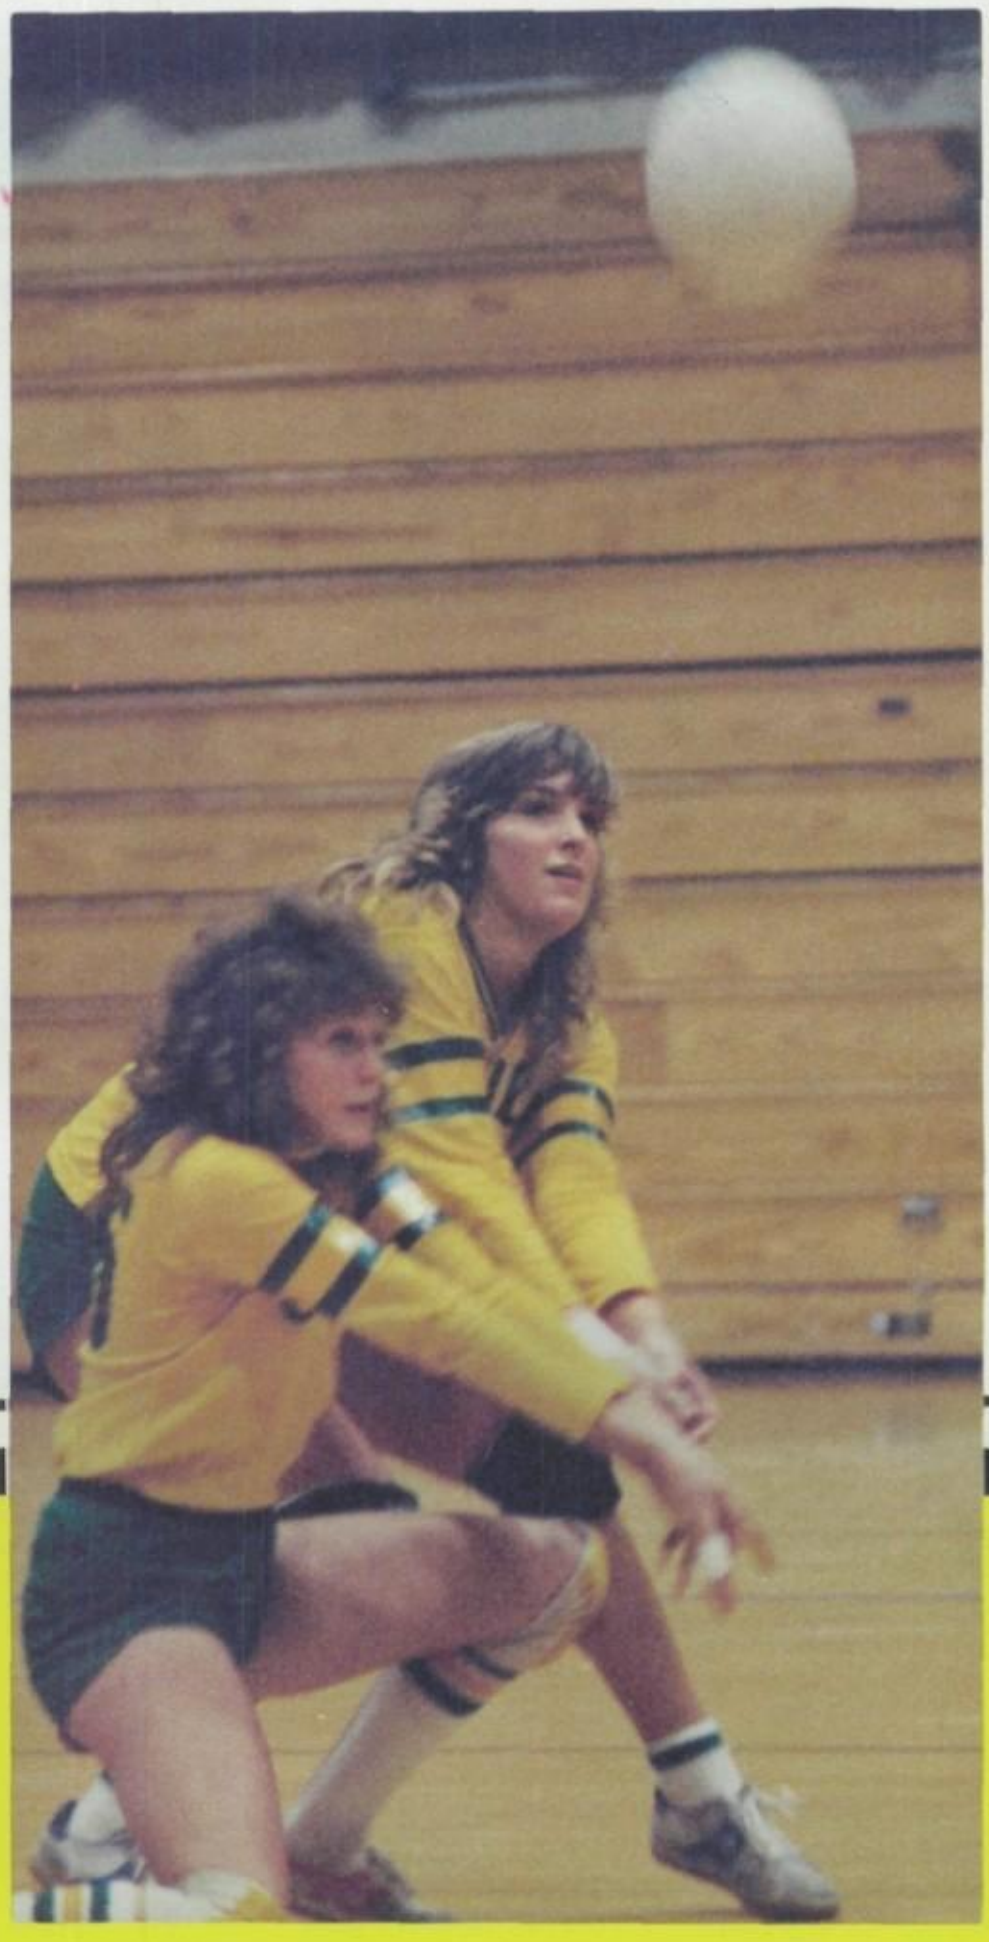
There was always time for having a blast,

letting ourselves go, showing our spirit



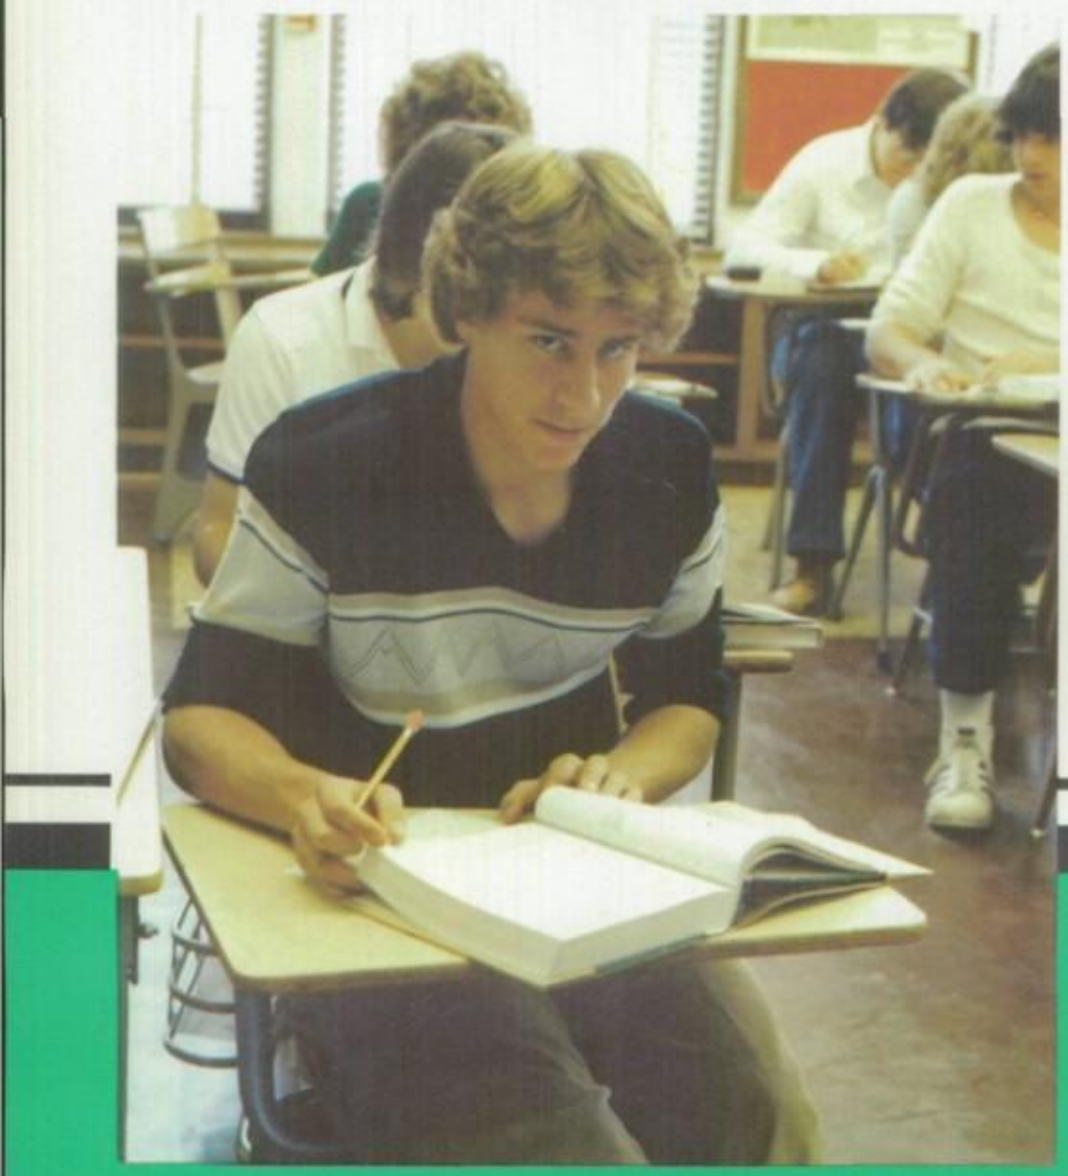


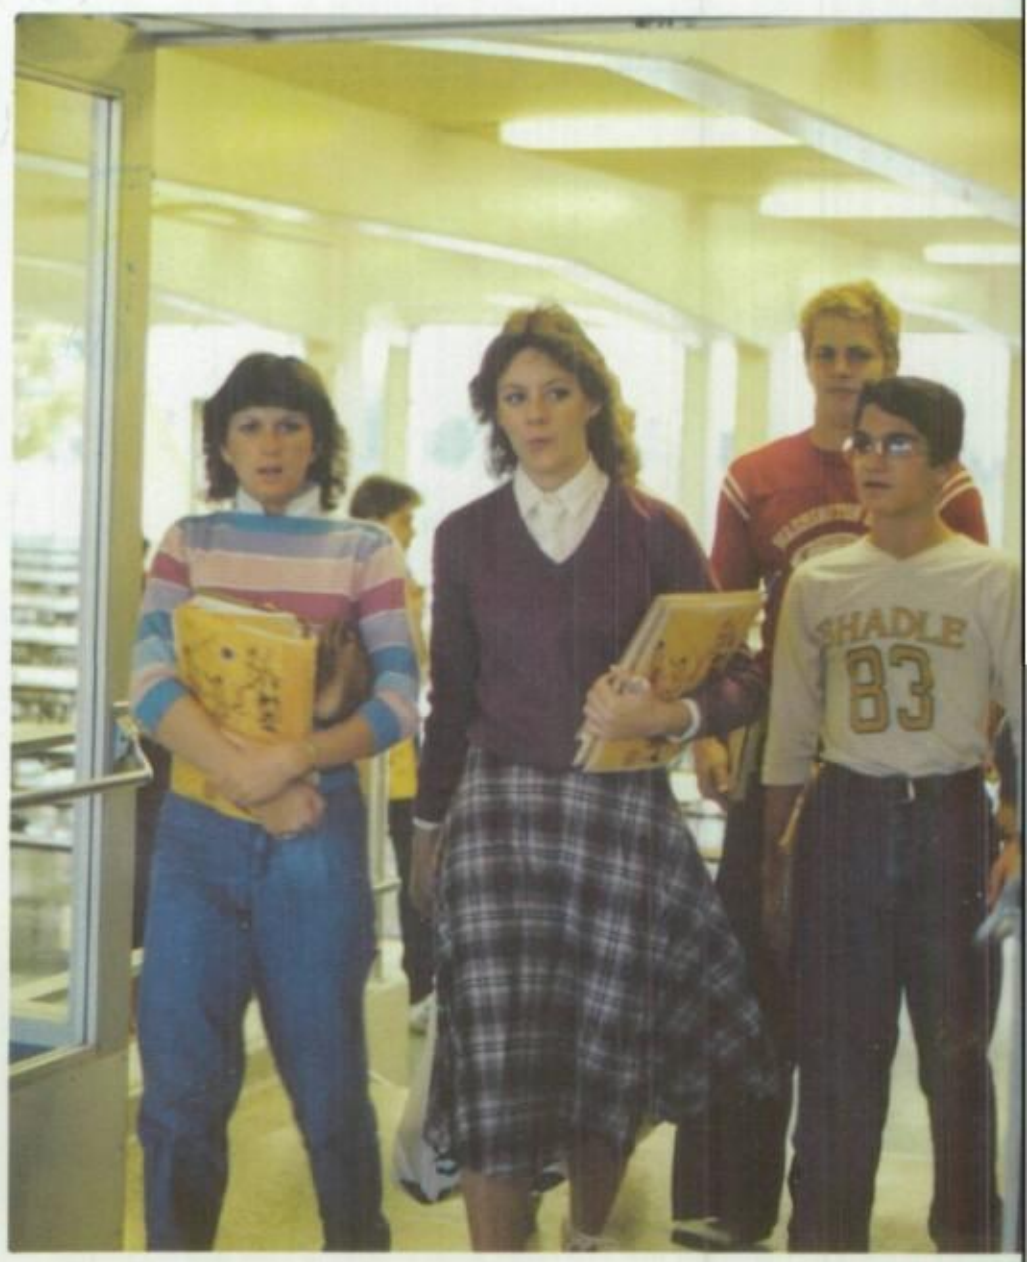


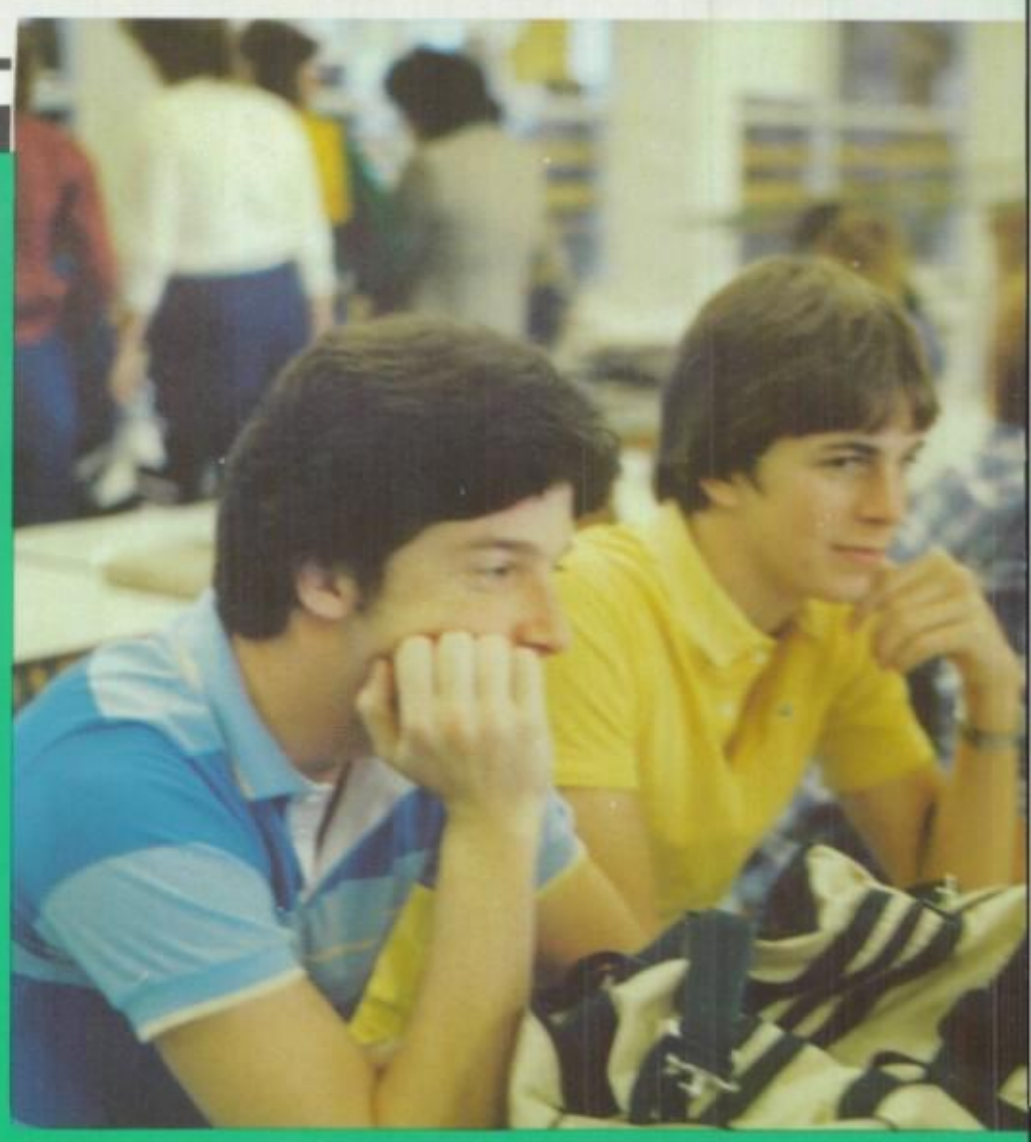


Highlanders made things happen, always striving, pushing ourselves to the limit

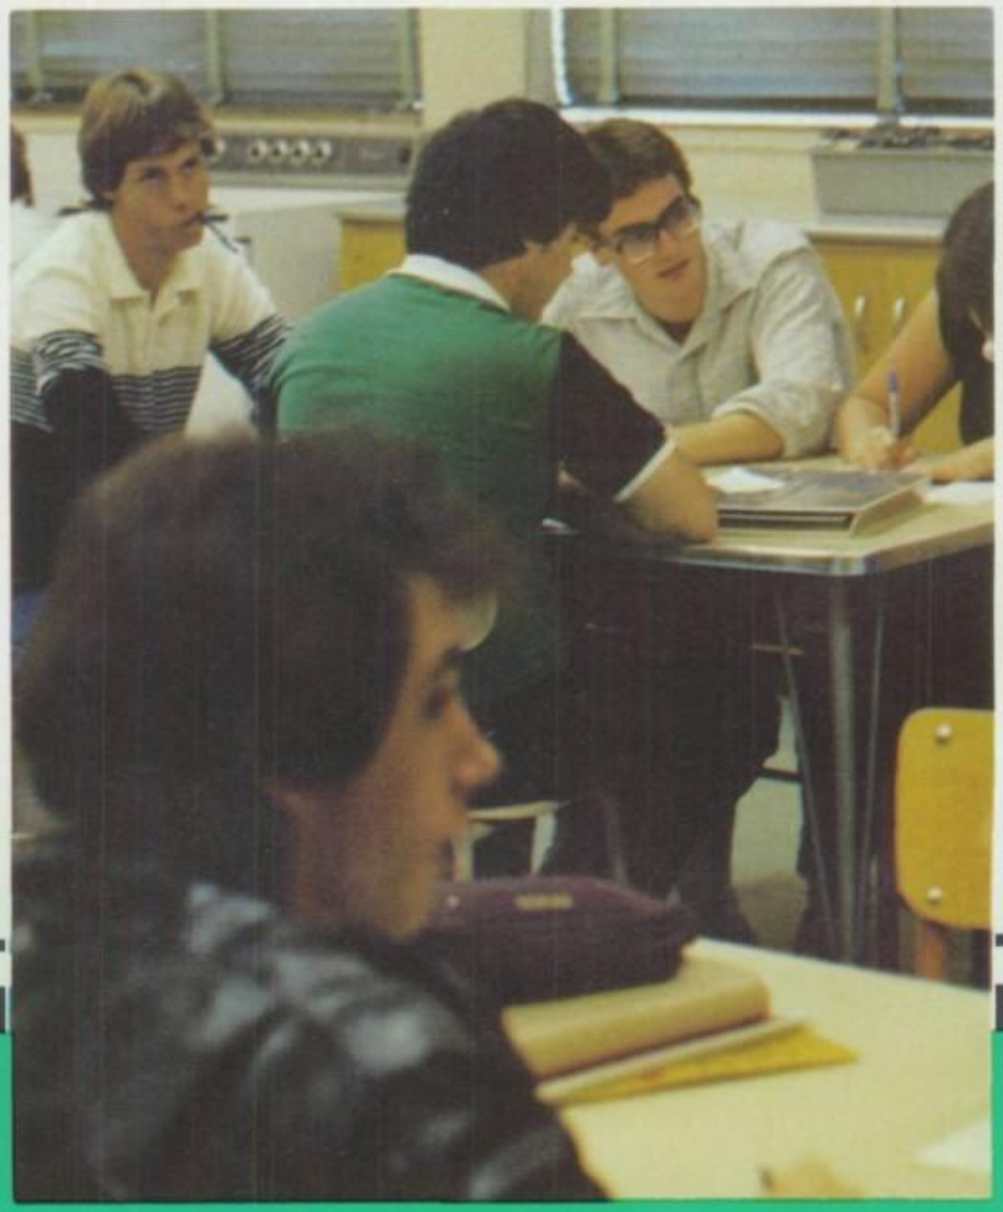
We found ourselves working hard,







thinking
learning,
being challenged



It was a time for finding out who you are,

SHADLE SOLVES FOR =1
SHADLE (SPIRIT + PRIDE) - HIGHLANDERS (SPIRIT + PRIDE)
SHADLE - HIGHLANDERS
HIGHLANDERS HIGHLANDERS

living each day to the fullest!

Highlanders' spirit reaches outside school

Most high school students spend almost all of their waking hours doing things at or for school. But this year was a year for never doing things the conventional way. People at Shadle got involved not only at school, but in the community as well. For instance, A.S.B. President Todd Mielke was looking to be appointed to a city council position. Now that takes initiative.

We had some great activities at school that supported our community. The food drive was one giving much needed food to the Food Bank during the holidays. Also, the blood drive was a most worthwhile project.

Shadle participated in sending 16 student leaders to talk to sixth grade students about the pressures and fun of growing up and making decisions.

Todd Mielke and Neil Maertens, representing Inter-Hi Senate, conducted a personal safety con to inform students of how to protect themselves when walking alone or when away from home.

Also, about 10 Shadle students were announcers for G.S.L. sports events. No other school even came close to having that many.

The list goes on and on of things that you, the student body have done to make this year great. You never sat back and watched the world go by, you made it run.

Whether you're in the class of '83, '84, '85, '86, your way of taking the world by storm in whatever you did, whether it was by going out with friends, doing class work or learning and perfecting a new talent, it really worked. You made this year happen!

Cons source of spirit

Special events added a lot to the spirit and fun of this 1983 school year. We were entertained during cons by everything from displays of POWER to positive image. And there were chances for everyone to get involved in one way or another. Remember dressing up for the Sadies or dressing up to be a football player, girls, or a cheerleader, guys, for the Powder Puff football game which the senior girls won?

The Pep Cons themselves were very spirited and fast moving. We were all proud to yell our support for Shadles' fine teams and class competitions were always fun. And who could forget The Valley Girls? "Fer sure . . ." 1983 was a year when we all got involved in the spirit and fun of being a Shadle Park Highlander.

Cheerleaders' spirit brings S.P. together

"We are together we are, together we are SP!" The screams of the crowd rose to a high point as the ten enthusiastic girls cheered the team on.

The girls are Shadle's Varsity Cheerleaders and no one is as spirited as Shaela Leaver, Sharon Waddell, Jennifer Jones, Chris Mueller, Sue Hodges, Jill Sannes, Yvonne Smith, Colleen Rowley, Jill Lennemann and Chris Carlsen at supporting Shadle's varsity teams.

The requirements for this special team are strict; the girls must maintain a 2.5 GPA, get recommendations from six teacher and be involved in other activities just to face tryouts. The girls set group and individual goals during the summer and won the coveted Spirit Award as well as all superior rating at camp.

These girls did a fine job all year long in supporting all of Shadle's athletes to the best of their abilities and supporting all school activities.

Kris Lindeblad, the group's advisor said, "The girls worked hard to meet the goals that they had set for themsleves." Lindeblad added, "I wish everyone could appreciate all the things the girls must do other than cheering which is really visible. I really admire them for the amount of time they put in so willingly."

J.V. Cheerleaders are spirited supporters

Seven ambitious girls are doubly important here at Shadle. They are the J.V. Cheerleaders, and they enthusiastically supported all the J.V. and Frosh teams throughout the year. This entailed a lot of time and much hard work on the part of these girls, and their advisor, Mrs. Gordon.

The cheerleaders promoted Shadle spirit by cheering at the games, making posters, and supporting the different teams in any way possible. These seven girls deserve much appreciation for all the time and spirit that they gave during the year to help Shadle look great and to specifically cheer our J.V. and Frosh teams on to victory.

Highlander Dancers rich in Scottish tradition

The Highlander tradition lived on this year through the most visible groups, the Highland Dancers and the pipe band. These groups performed during halftimes, and community shows and other school activities.

The 10 dancers and pipers ranging from freshmen to seniors, built up a repertoire of over ten Scottish dances which they performed for enthusiastic loyal Shadle fans at halftimes, cons, the Dad-Daughter night, choral and band concerts. They amazed and delighted crowds outside of school with their performances at an annual Scottish dinner and St. Patrick's day celebrations.

The dancers also sponsored the "American Graffiti" mixer and sold food items at KILT, as fund raising projects.

The Pipe Band and Dancers' advisors, Judy Morrison and Randy Spitzer agreed in a year of change, the group progressed well and did a great job performing.

Hi Lassies essence of Shadle spirit

The Shadle Park Hi-Lassies marched across the field, adding the finishing touches to the band. But the Hi Lassies do more than perform at halftimes, they are one of the central spirit and service groups for the school.

The 35 girls sponsored many activities and fund raisers throughout the year; the spaghetti feed, "Rock this Town" mixer, poster and ornament sales and a Spring picnic. They also worked hard under their advisor, Miss Olson, to perform with the band in the Kingdome Competition and various halftime shows.

"The colorguards performances in the band competitions were most impressive," commented Advisor Miss Olson.

Spirit soars with the Shadle Park band

Any of Shadle's 120 band members could tell you that it takes a lot of dedication and hard work to make the marching band work as a unit. But they could also tell you that it's worth it.

The band played through many summer mornings and fall evenings to get ready for the Kingbowl competition in Seattle. Then they went over there and brought home a superior rating of 1. They also travelled to Kennewick and U-Hi for competitions.

The band played for every home game and enthusiastically created spirit in cons, and halftimes, and marched in the Lilac Parade in the Spring.

The Band council, consisting of President Mark Banks, 10 members of the council, and Drum Majors Linda Harris and Jay McWhirter, organized many activities and fund raisers for the band with the help of director Bill Snyder.

Dear Tom:
Thank you for making the last

Orchestra adds class

Some great "Orchestral Maneuvers" were performed by Shadle's 12 member orchestra this year.

They learned many classical pieces and played them at the fall and spring concerts. Many of the members took on a big job in January and February. They performed the entire score of "MUSIC MAN" for the annual school play. This constituted numerous after school and all day rehearsals. Some members of the Jazz band did a great job playing for the Musical.

Jazz band talented

As in previous years, Shadle's Jazz Band has been very active. They have participated in many concerts and contest situations including the University of Idaho Jazz Festival, and concerts at Shadle.

The Jazz Band is a group of people that are dedicated to improving their musical ability, as well as learning jazz styles. Many of its members go on to perform with area college bands.

Mr. Snyder, the band's director, has been responsible for the band's achievements, and has done much to improve the quality of musicianship and attitudes of the members.

Mark Alexander, Jazz Band's Bass player and a 3 year veteran of the band says, "The Jazz Band has improved much in the past 3 years. I can see a bright future for them, there are many talented people and the band has a lot of potential."

Highlandaires are showcase of talent

Shadle's Jazz Choir, the Highlandaires, be-bopped their way into many an audience's heart as they performed at school, civic concerts and travelled to Seattle, Wenatchee and Gonzaga for Jazz festivals.

The group of 25 talented musicians learned jazz tunes from many eras. And in their jazzy black and burgundy outfits, made quite a hit with the crowds.

They were really excited about what they were doing, how well they blended as a group as the year went on, and it showed in the quality of their performances.

Highlander Chorale pleases audiences

A lot of work goes into making a good choir and the Shadle Park Highlander Chorale is evidence of that.

The choir worked hard all year and performed at numerous concerts. They also traveled to Seattle and Gonzaga to sing in Choral festivals.

And they worked hard not only at music, but fund raising activities which made it possible to make the across state trip. These activities were organized by many committees appointed by the director, Mr. Spitzer, Choir Pres. Shannon Borg, and the 45 choir members.

"It was a very good year musically. We improved a lot and had a lot of fun."

Girls' Ensemble adds dimension to program while Concert Choir Provides strong base

"They may not be a band of angels in the air, but at times, they sure do sound like it," says Randy Spitzer, choral director for the Girls' Chamber Ensemble.

The 25 girls sing many various types of music from pop to ancient chamber music and have done a great job performing at school concerts, and many community performances.

As a specialty group in the choral program, the girls added a lot to the other choirs performances. They also travelled to Seattle and Wenatchee to sing along with the Highlander Chorale and Highlandaires.

Concert Choir is one of the strong bases for Shadle's excellent choral program. Many performances kept their schedules busy this year. The Fall, Christmas, and Spring concerts are just a few to name.

Advisor Randy Spitzer, helped them to learn basic musical skills, perform, and have fun doing it.

These musicians have the chance at the end of the year to try out for Shadle's advanced choir.

A.S.B. makes Shadle a great place to be

This year's A.S.B. officers and members really made the program work to its fullest extent. The standing committees of Communication and Evaluations, Building Improvement and the Courtesy and Calendar committee did a great job of finding out what the students' wants and needs were and acted upon them.

In the fall, a ten minute break between 2nd and 3rd period was instituted for the first time at Shadle. The name given this break was KILT (Kick Into Leisure Time) and it proved to be a great success.

They also organized BIONIC week (Believe it or not, I care), Highlander Week, and they hosted the Christmas dance and the A.S.B. installation to name a few. The efficient officers that organized these varied activities were President Todd Mielke, Vice President Dave West, Secretary Tiffiny Cooper, Treasurer Amy Brown and 5th Executive Kirsten Utheim.

Spring A.S.B. carried on the traditions of great activities and internal organization. President Neil Maertens, Vice-President Brad Kreulen, Secretary Karin Plemmins, Treasurer Mark Banks, and 5th executive Wendy Hagan, were at the head of these activities. The Sweetheart Dance, the Great Egg Hunt, the A.S.B. installation, and Friday Spirit days were just some of the projects of the Spring A.S.B. They also did the Lilac Coronation, it was a great success and one of the best ever.

Spring President Neil Maertens commented, "It has been very important to us to be sensitive to the opinions of students and act in their best interests, and we had a blast doing it."

Both the fall and Spring officers showed how A.S.B. should and can serve the student body.

League contributes to Shadle's spirit

League is an organization that may not be as well known as A.S.B., but they spend a lot of time and effort in organizing fun activities for the student body and service projects for the community.

This year League re-wrote their constitution, changing it legally from Girls' League to League. The fall semester officers Karin Plemmons, president, Vice President Frances Baunach, Secretary Joan Harper, Treasurer Mary Jameson and 5th Executive Paula Shill worked long hours to make all their projects a great success.

The Sadie Hawkins dance was a big project for League, they also went to the Shriners Hospitals for Thanksgiving and Garland School for Christmas. League also sets up the birthday calendar and organized a very successful Father Daughter Night with the theme "Mon Pere." The Spring Semester officers were Mary Jameson president, Vice President Karen Jones, Secretary Michelle Winfrey, Treasurer Kirsten Utheim and 5th Executive Kristi Ayers.

Some of Spring League's projects were the Cotton Day Dance, and Mother Student Night. Spring President Mary Jameson commented, "League is a fun way for students to get involved in their school and community. We really enjoyed all our projects this year."

Inter Hi Senate takes ideas to district

The SISS is an organization of students representing most Spokane area high schools and is advised by Spokane School District #81 Superintendent Gerald Hester. This group meets on a monthly basis to share activity ideas and to discuss common problem areas of concern.

Representing Shadle in the Senate were our two A.S.B. Presidents and Junior representative who were chosen by application. Leading Shadle's delegation to every meeting was Assistant Principal Don Miller. Shadle's members of Inter Hi Senate organized a con on personal safety and worked on many other significant projects this year.

N.H.S. students excel

Shadle's Honor Society recognizes those students who have excelled in academics all year long. To be elected to the N.H.S., students must have a 3.5 G.P.A. as a senior or a 3.8 as a junior. In addition to their academic excellence most of the students are involved in many school activities such as music, sports, debate and community activities.

The group held two installation programs and elected officers. The officers are Carolyn Oliveri, President; V.P. Mike Doughty; Secretary Greg Sargent; and Treasurer Dave West.

Mr. Chandler, the N.H.S. advisor, stated, "This is one way which the school can recognize and honor these students for their outstanding academic records."

Sporran staff records the memories of 1983

Walking past the Yearbook class, you might hear something like this. "Hey, are those layouts done?" or "How many picas long is it?" or "Could you crop these pictures?" This lingo might seem strange, but it's everyday talk to the staff of the Shadle Sporran.

Plans for the 1983 yearbook started this summer at several camps. By the time school started, ideas had to be perfected and deadlines had to be met early as October. The staff spent many tiring hours before and after school checking names, typing copy, and drawing layouts, in hopes of meeting deadlines. All of these tasks were headed by Advisor Mrs. Joyce Lykes and Editor Debbie West.

All of the time and devotion of the 1983 Sporran Staff was spent in hopes to put together the type of yearbook that covers every sport, club, major event, and capture the year for you and help you remember it.

D.E.C.A. club provides learning experience

After graduation, many Seniors will be wondering what to do with their life. The 25 members of DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) have been preparing for careers in the business field for the last two years.

In their junior year, they took Sales and Marketing, and this year they are participating in the three part program of DECA. First is the Class where they learn about business. They also hold jobs in a business related field, and the third part is the "club" where members get together to have fun.

President Liz Lubben, Vice President Lisa Powell, Secretary Michelle Peak, Treasurer Gigi Cadeiux, Parliamentarian Matt Lenoue, Historian Stephanie Bumgarner, and Reporter Laura Totten worked hard to organize club activities, installation of officers and competitions during the year.

Highlights staff strives for excellence

This year the Shadle Newspaper staff held high the reputation of our own Highlander Highlights. Under the advisorship of Mrs. Joyce Lykes, the staff set into motion one of the most successful years for the Highlights.

The Fall Semester was a period of rebuilding and restrengthening the Highlights' staff. The results came in the form of new regular columns, challenging new concepts, and a greater number of issues printed. Credit for these achievements certainly goes to the whole staff, but particularly Wendy Jones, Editor-in-Chief.

An attitude of continued quality in workmanship was carried into the Spring Semester. The Highlights' feels fortunate to have the support of the students, staff, administration, and other readers. The support as well as the constructive criticism received is always necessary to reach the excellence the Highlights' staff always strive for.

Eight of the unsung heroes of Shadle Park are Mark Martell, Dave West, Dan Elliot, Brian Groves, Joe Caruso, Serena Speer, Chuck Nichol, and Paul Dickinson, the team of photographers who clicked their shutters at the right moments so many times this year to help bring you slide shows, the newspaper and this yearbook.

They worked hard and long in the darkroom and in the halls capturing the student body at its best (and sometimes at its worst).

The yearbook staff sincerely thanks them for all the work they did for us.

KSPH Announcers are voices of Shadle

KSPH, Shadle's group of sports announcers, has been around for several years, but it wasn't until this fall, and the coming of winter sports, that the group exploded with a growth spurt and was heard all over the school.

This group of dedicated students put in a lot of hours towards their duties. They announce all home games from Freshmen to Varsity. Coverage is provided for volleyball, gymnastics, wrestling, and boys' and girls' basketball. Also, some "voices of Shadle" have been invited to do Shadle's outside games.

Stage crew spotlights Shadle auditorium

Imagine walking into a pep con or an A.S.B. assembly with no lights, microphones or people running around making everything work. It wouldn't be much of a gathering and the Stage Crew is responsible for providing those services.

The 9 members of Stage Crew, under advisor Mrs. Cozad, run the light booth, the sound system and the spotlights in Shadle's auditorium, the biggest in the city. Many community functions are also held here that our stage crew helps out with. Some of the things they worked on behind the scenes this year were the school play, The Lilac Coronation, and both A.S.B. installations.

Key Club involves members in city

17 students became involved in servicing their community and school as Key Club International members. Key Club is one of Shadle's service organizations — getting members involved and aware of what can be done in their community. The members kept busy with numerous activities, including an excellent job of organizing an M.D.A. Christmas Party, Cerebral Palsy Bowling, M.D.A. Super Dance, and arranging a useful career guidebook for students.

The members elected Dru Ann Root as President, Liz Bosse as Vice-President, Donna Miller as Secretary, and Bonnie Stevens as Treasurer. The officers did an excellent job in the planning and organization of their many activities.

CO-OP builds leaders in business careers

CO-OP is more than just another club. It is a class for seniors who want to learn to work in business and office careers. Exclusively for Seniors, the cooporative office occupations program has 20 members. These members elected Denise Mandersheid as President, Rolanda Ryan as Vice-President, Cindy Jansen, Secretary, Lisa O'Dell, Treasurer, and Historians Connie Taylor and Sandy Carter.

Stationery, See's Suckers and Santa-Grams were all sales provided by CO-OP. The members went on field trips to local colleges and various businesses in Spokane, and they also sponsored an all city breakfast with other CO-OP clubs from city schools and an employer/employee luncheon.

F.F.A. adds color and class to Shadle

If there is any one place within Shadle Park High School that is peaceful, relaxing, and above all warm, it's the greenhouse. Consequently, most Horticulture students enjoy the many hours they spend there.

This group is a class and a club all in one. Both guys and girls have always been welcome to participate in the many contests, conventions, and Open Houses they enter or sponsor. These activities are part of the Future Farmers of America (F.F.A) organization of which Shadle Horticulture is a member.

As a service to Shadle and as a means of generating revenue, the group sells custom floral designs at affordable prices, especially around the holidays. They also sell house plants, vegetable seeds, and bedding plants throughout the year to help pay for the many cost that arise.

The class is also responsible for repotting, watering, and weeding the plants around the buildings. And their most traditional task is to plant the graduating class number in the Senior Court.

Debate team amasses impressive victories

"It's been a fun year, "says Debate coach Bob Gilmore. It also has been a lot of work for the 28 members of the Debate team. They argued their point at 5 tournaments and 13 league matches, and came through with a record of 18-8 and a rating of 4th in the league, sending the varsity teams to districts. The best in the past 15 years at Shadle.

In a tournament at Eastern, the varsity team of Heidi Havens and David Ruple took an impressive 2nd place. The other varsity team of Mick Doyle and Curtis Edlin went to semifinals bringing home 4th place for Shadle. Terry Stevens and Rick Findley both brought home 3rd place trophies in Junior and Senior Lincoln Douglas. In individual events Patty Jerry and Mary Gross took 2nd and 3rd place trophies in Oral Interpretation.

Over all the team improved tremendously. Each member put their heart into what they were doing and gave each round and event their best shot.

Dedicated athletes serve student body

Shadle's excellent athletes work hard in their different sports. Many of them are dedicated enough the earn the coveted "S" to put on their green and gold jackets.

In Shadle's Lettermen's club, many athletes get together to serve their school as well. In the fall, Greg Jones was President. In the spring, the Officers were Chris Boni; President, Co-Vice Presidents Greg Sargent and Chris Harvill, Secretary Tom Yearout, Treasurer Sam Gregg and 5th Executive Dave West. Ron Brooks is their advisor.

The guys got together to organize two blood drives, a mixer with the class of '84, they bought new weights for the school and were a big support to the Shadle sport teams. They also had regular meetings to organize activities and have a great time.

Mat Mates show their spirit by supporting the wrestlers

The Mat Mates donned their green and gold again this year to support Shadle's wrestling teams.

The girls, under the direction of their advisor, Dan Close, decorated the wrestler's lockers on the days of matches and attended all the matches to cheer on the wrestlers.

Some of the Mat Mates also sold concessions at the matches to support the wrestling team.

They did a great job in supporting Shadle's winning wrestling team. They sent quite a few wrestlers to districts and regionals, and Joe Cleary and Chris Boni both placed in the state tournament.

The Mat Mates' dedication and help was greatly appreciated by the team and Coach Close.

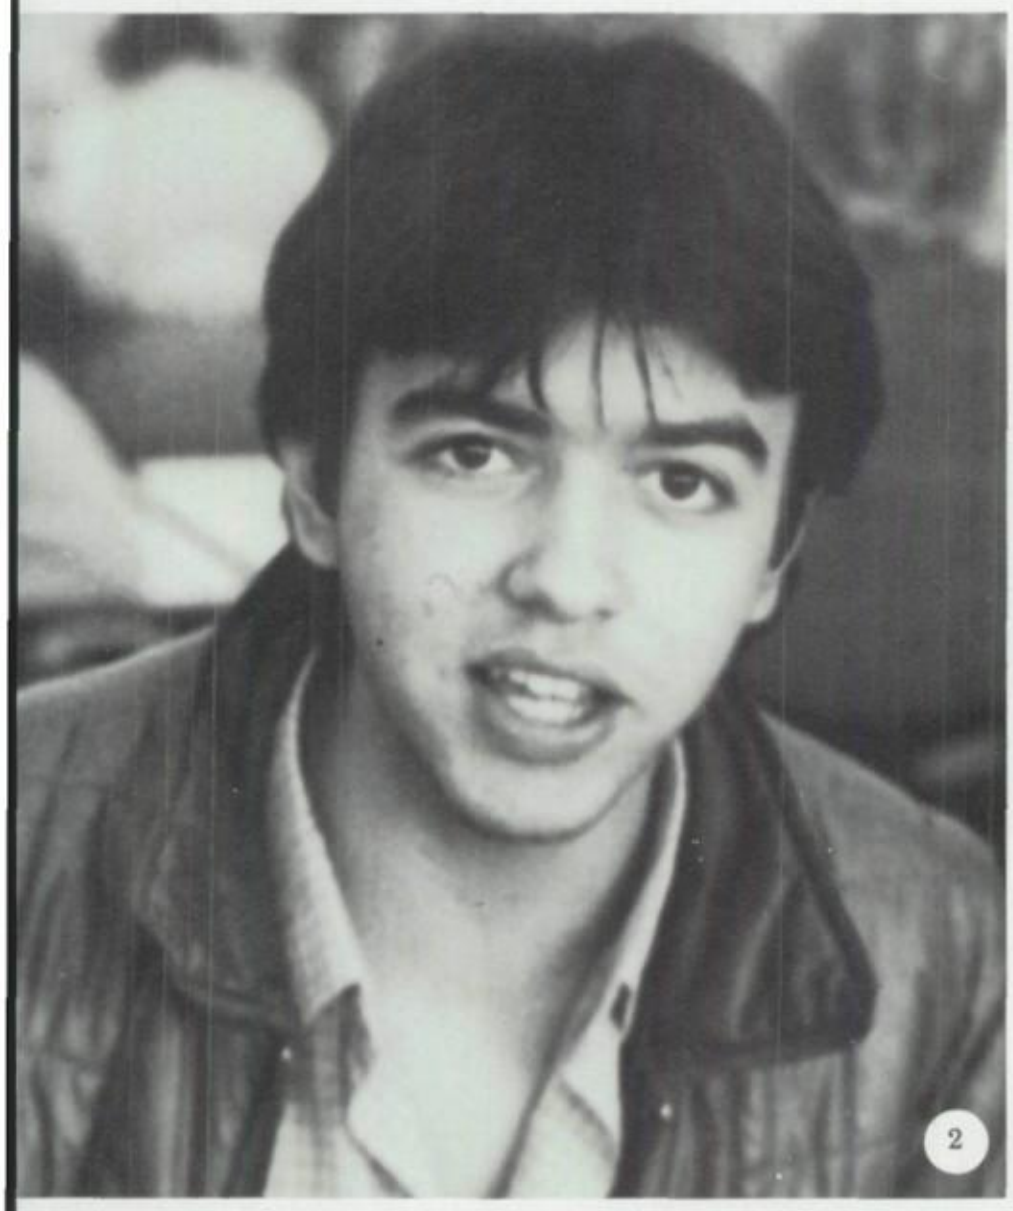
A.F.S. helps dreams become reality



Most people dream of one day being able to travel to many of the countries of the world. For many it never becomes a reality. However, each year members of the American Field Service (A.F.S.) have hosted foreign students from many countries. The "hosts" learn more about the student's country and share in his experiences abroad. Being alone and a long way from home in another country can be quite difficult, but the A.F.S. members make sure that our Foreign Students become "one of the gang."

Luis Rameriz came from Paraguay to spend a year in the U.S., learning about the American life. He became a "Shadleite," he spoke at the winter A.S.B. installation Con, and presented Shadle the flag of his country at the end of the year.

We were all enriched by his presence and experience and can only hope that his life was enriched too.

Spanish club expands group and members

Shadle's 120 Spanish Club members set out to do more than just speak Spanish this year. Under the advisement of Mr. Flores, the students hosted a Christmas project to help needy families with food, clothing, and toys to make their Christmas a little brighter.

The club's officers Scott Phares, President, Joe Absalonson, Vice-President, and Bob Congleton, Secretary, were the leaders that helped make all the projects successful.

An annual event that all the foreign language students look forward to is the International Dinner held in the Spring. This get-together gives the students and teachers a chance to share foods, customs, and experiences from the countries they studied during the year.

German club learns authentic customs

German Club has a special experience this year. Mr. Killenburg brought a little bit of Germany to Shadle's room 326, and the German students. This change was made when Frau Baker made the trek over to Germany to teach in Mr. Killenburg's place.

The students really enjoyed this chance to learn some authentic customs. President Mark Baldwin, Vice-President Steve Cote, Treasurer Craig Clark and Secretary Mick Doyle helped to organize activities for German Students to learn more about the country and its traditions.

French club enjoys cultural enrichment

Bonjour! French club this year had a great time learning about the language and customs of France through their advisor Mr. Via.

French students also participated in the International Dinner held in the spring to bring a little 'culture' to Shadle's foreign language programs.

There are students from 1st to 4th year experience in French and some of these students have independent studies with Mr. Via during the day.

4. The quartet — Dan Wordell, Mark Banks, Doug Wordell and Dave Kimmet sing "Good Night Ladies." 5. The Opening scene — "The Music Man." A train full of Iowans ride into River City.

Cast and crew's work pays off in applause

One of Shadle's most successful and consistently excellent musical plays ever was "The Music Man," put on in February.

The Music Man is the story of a travelling con man named Harold Hill portrayed by Davin Henrikson, who tries to sell band instruments and uniforms to a stubborn Iowa town. The town librarian, Marion Paroo, played by Theolene Overland, shows suspicion to his plan until Harold and Marion fall in love.

The other major characters gave great portrayals of their parts also. Eric Travis played Mayor Shinn, Audrey Anderson as his wife Eulalie McKecknie Shinn. Lisa Morganroth and Bridgette McArvil were double cast as the Shinn's daughter, Zaneeta, and Amy Lingohr was their other daughter, Gracie. Bill Schell and Sean O'Hare shared the part of Tommy Djilas. The school board, who became the "Quartet," were characterized by Dave Kimmet (Jacey Squires) Dan Wordell (Olin Britt) Doug Wordell (Ewart Dunlop) and Mark Banks (Oliver Hix). The Del Sarte Committee consisted of Diana Jess (Mrs. Squires) Caryn Nebergall (Maud) Kim Staufer (Ethel) and Mary Jameson (Alma). Marcellus Washburn, Harold's "partner" was portrayed by Kirk Stevens. The part of Mrs. Paroo was played by Shannon Borg and her son Winthrop was Eric Johnston.

A cast of over 90 performers and an orchestra of about 25 made the play a great success. The expertise of Director Barb Cozad and Musical Directors Randy Spitzer and Bill Snyder brought the talents together for an excellent show.

Also behind the scene was the production crew. They consisted of Jeff Elliot, Eric McWhinney, Mark Erickson, Shawn Carney, Todd Schmidt, and Kelley Kimmet, and special help from Don Henrikson.

Kelly Brett chosen as 1983 Lilac Princess

A sure sign of spring each year is the annual Lilac Coronation and this year's event was one of the best ever presented at Shadle. And for Kelly Brett, it was an especially beautiful night. Kelly, crowned as Shadle's Lilac Princess for 1983, was enthusiastically supported by the other nine finalists, a group of talented, confident, and optimistic girls.

A lot of work went into the program, especially picking the ten finalists. Every Senior girl was nominated and then homerooms voted to narrow the list to 40 girls. Another vote was taken to reduce the list to 20. These girls were given about four days to prepare a three minute speech, and were judged on Tuesday, March 8. The ten finalists chose their escorts for the program on Tuesday, March 15.

The ten finalists and their escorts were: Melinda Varns and Greg Sargent, Yvonne Smith and her escort Jerry Peterson, Colleen Rowley and Kevin Hodges, Tracy Moran and Kurt Ostlund, Jill Lennemann and her escort Jim Mattocks, Laurie Kiehn and Randy Bakken, Shannon Borg escorted by Davin Henrikson, Karin Plemmons escorted by Mark Rahner, and Kelly Brett who was escorted by Ben Allen.

During the program the girls set on white wrought iron benches among beautiful flowers, greenery, and lattice work. This stunning set was created by many involved members of the Senior Class. General chairmen, Trish Lydon and Brad Kreulen, made sure everything ran smoothly, with the help of Mrs. Elias and Mrs. Daisley.
Troy Nickerson was the Master of Ceremonies and Todd Mielke and David Ruple did a great job as Courtiers. Throughout the evening, entertainment was provided by Theresa Bauer, The Jazz Band, Selina Brantley and Hsai Jung Chang, Jeff Galindo and Mark Banks, and Troy Nickerson.

Last year's Lilac Princess, Leslie Schussler was also there to give a farewell speech and present her robe and tiara to Kelly when the exciting moment came.

The Lilac Coronation holds many beautiful memories for all who participated in the program. We are proud of Kelly and know that she will represent Shadle well.

Sadie Hawkins a season of fun

Many people look forward to that one night a year when they can dress up in crazy costumes, go out to dinner and dance till midnight.

The Sadie Hawkins dance was that event and it turned out to be a great success this year.

The league spent long hours working on the decorations, costume contest, refreshments, and many other things that go into organizing a dance. General chairmen Neil Maertens and Shannon Borg supervised the committee chairpersons progress.

League also planned and carried out the Cotton Day Dance.

1. A couple "gets married" at the Sadies by Marryin' Sam. 2. Michelle Dawson and Jerry Gaston won 2nd prize for their costume. 3. The first prize winners were Lisa and Jerry Jordan. 4. "Heart to Heart" unites sweethearts

"Heart to Heart" was the theme of the Sweetheart Dance this year. It was a great success as it gave sweethearts and friends a chance to get together and have a great time dancing to the sounds of the band Vision.

General Chairperson, Debbie Sundburg and Chris Carlson's great work helped the annual event run smoothly.

Fourteen Sweetheart and Heartthrob finalists were chosen from the Senior class and Laurie Kiehn and Greg Sargent were chosen as the final Sweetheart and Heartthrob at the dance for the class of '83. The representatives from the class of '84 were Tom Yearout and Tami Soo. The class of '85, chose Dennis Bricker and Debi Cool, while the freshmen chose Russ Wilbanks and Samantha Parks as their Sweetheart and Heartthrob.

1. Sweetheart and Heartthrob Greg Sargent and Laurie Kiehn reigned over the Sweetheart Dance. 2. John Cage playing in the band Vision. 3. A couple dances to the sounds of Vision. 4. Dance Company ends year with style and grace

"After directing the company for five years, I'm proud to say this is the finest, most disciplined bunch of dancers ever. Positive hard working attitudes made this season a delightful fulfilling experience!!" These are the feelings of Miss Nancy Olson about this year as advisor of Shadle's Dance Company.

Dance Company included 34 dancers and three technical crew members. They all worked hard to make the company's four performances a great success. The girls performed one evening performance, one for the residents of a convalescent home, and two day time performances for english classes here at Shadle.

Three Co-directors and Miss Olson choreographed the dances. Stephanie Percy and Barb Wands created and taught the steps to the jazz ballet portion of the program, Kirsten Utheim taught the ballet dances, and Miss Olson thought up the modern dances. These four worked together to create an enjoyable show with the theme "Spectrum, An Adventure in Dance."

All the dancers did a great job and the costumes, props, and lights added to the performances making them very enjoyable for their audiences.

Also involved were the officers: President Paula Shill, Vice President T. J. Do, and Secretary-Treasurer Tracy Dotten. Aaron Magner and Bill Deymonaz did the art work for the Dance Company T-Shirts.

In a final comment to her dancers, Miss Olson reflected, "Thank you so much ladies, for making my year!"

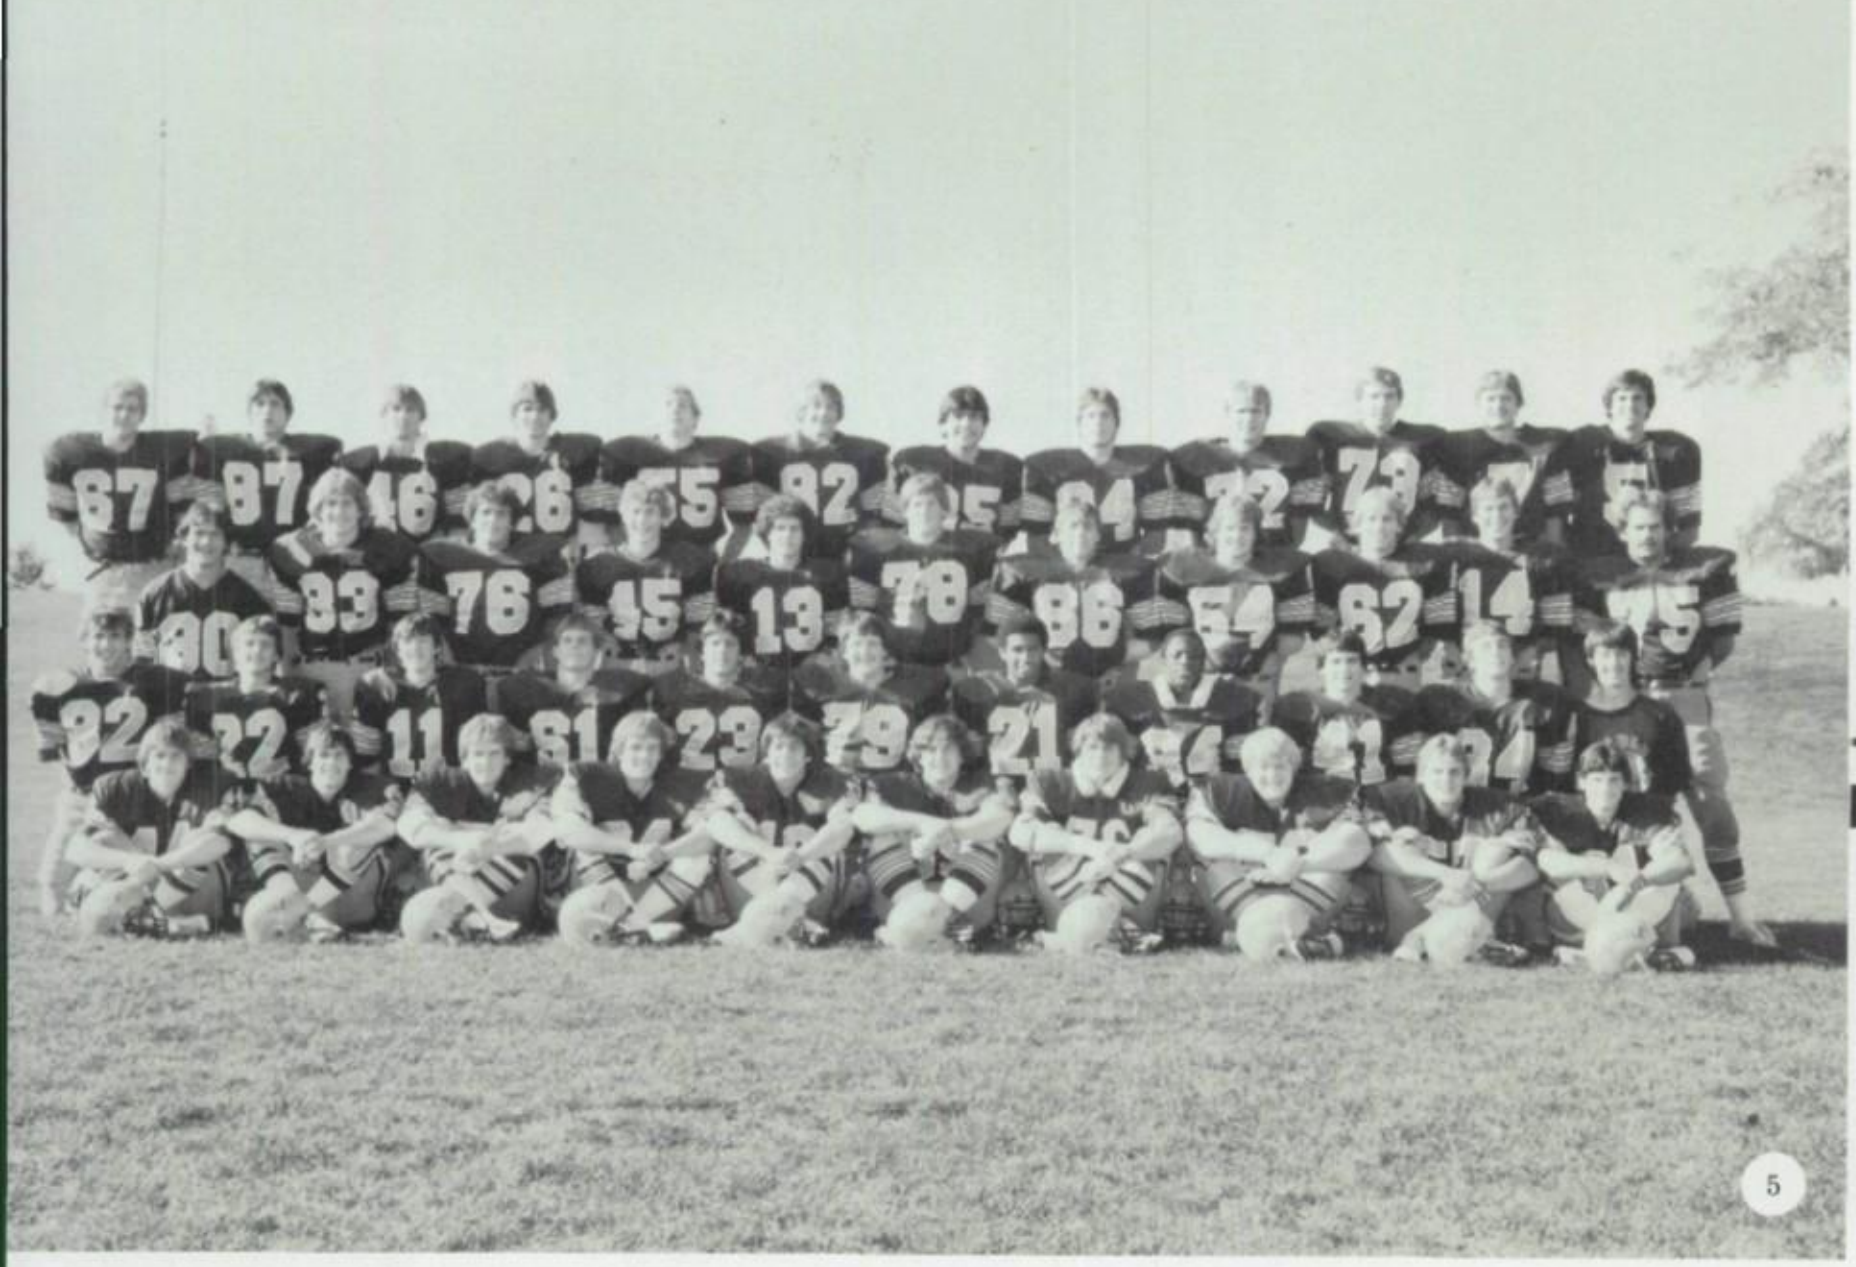
Varsity football turns season around

Shadle's Varsity Football team had an excellent season this year. Coached by Bob Haney, the team started out a rough season competing against some of the toughest teams in the league.

Ending with a 5-3 record, the team played exceptionally well although they had difficulty starting out at the beginning of the season. Notable, to the team's credit, earlier in the season, they shut out Gonzaga Prep 14-0, the first time since 1977 that G-Prep has been shut out. Also to the team's credit is the fact that Prep played in the Kingdome for the state championship. The team had an outstanding season due to their cooperation and team spirit.

According to Coach Haney, "the team played well, they had a lot of cooperation and put forth a lot of effort. It is a real tribute to the team to come back after losing their first three games.

Congratulations to the Varsity Football team!



Junior varsity football places strong second in the city

Shadle Park's Junior Varsity football team completed a terrific season placing them among the league's best. Coached by Dan Close and Ron Brooks, the team excelled the entire season with a 5-4 overall standing.

They finished the season on a strong positive note with a 5-3 record putting them in second place after starting the season with some ups and downs. The team's defense held their opponents to zero points in the last 14 quarters of play. At the same time their offense scored 58 points.

Coach Close has this to say about the team, "If I had to choose one word to describe this season and this team it would be 'Growth,' we started as a young, inexperienced team with not much confidence in our ability and grew into a good team capable of beating any team in the league. Most importantly, we grew into believers in ourselves and what we can do."

Shadle frosh football place third in league

Shadle's Freshman Football teams did an excellent job of representing Shadle in their first year of high school sports. The team has a 4-2 league standing and placed third in the city.

Losing only to first place Mead and second place Gonzaga, the team, coached by Herb Rotchford and Larry Poffenroth, performed exceptionally well all season. The entire season seemed aimed at playing Mead, the final game of the year. Shadle was 4-1 going in and Mead was 5-0. Shadle, unfortunately, lost but according to Coach Rotchford, "the game itself was the best played frosh game possible both ways even though Shadle outplayed their opponent."

Team cooperation was excellent this year. "The whole team played from the bottom of their hearts and were very emotional and very, very physical," said Coach Rotchford about the Mead game, the final score of which was 14-12.

1. Row 1: Tony King, Kevin Whittier, Mark Hamilton, Bill Stowe, Vick Carroll, Danny Johnson, Karl Osborn, Rob Allan, Tim Housh, Russ Wilbanks. Row 2: John Roman, Rob Peringer, Steve Lovejoy, Shahid Quidwai, Ron Kinlow, Coach Larry Poffenroth, Coach Herb Rotchford, Gerry Wier, Bill Spinnell, Steve Clark, Steve Redmond. Row 3: Paul Dehmer, Willie Haynes, Joe Turman, Randy Hoerner, Monte Burnett, Rick Bakken, Tom Long, Jeff Baldwin, Gerry Gifford, Nick Curtis, Mike Johnson. Row 4: Don Northcraft, Tom Hill, Kirk Niblock, Jay Waldroup, Mike Ramos, Kreg Schaefer, Kevin Butler, Herald Hagsrom, Larry Fiechtner, Tom Oliver, Jim Shoemaker. 2. Shadle handed Gonzaga their only loss of the season.

Hard work pays off in outstanding season for Varsity Volleyball

Shadle's Varsity Volleyball team finished an outstanding season, placing third with an 11-5 league record and a 12-6 overall record.

Coached by Linda Sheridan, the team played superbly throughout the entire volleyball season. In District playoffs, Shadle was the first team to knock off undefeated Ferris and beat Mead in the first round of playoffs.

Kathy Lewis was named to the first team All-League and Melinda Varns and Julie Cordes were nominated to the second team All-League. Shadle tied for the most players nominated to the All-League teams, as positive proof of what an outstanding team they were.

According to Mrs. Sheridan, the team was, "One of the hardest working, most supportive teams ever at Shadle." Much to their credit, the team should be applauded for their outstanding performance this year.

First place G.S.L. finishes for Frosh and J.V. teams

Joining the ranks of the rest, Shadle's Junior Varsity Volleyball team also finished an outstanding season with a 12-4 league record and tied for first in the city.

Coached by Linda Wolcott and Kara Dunlop, the team held up a difficult season, encountering some of the toughest opposition in the league. The team showed excellent cooperation and team-work, which contributed greatly to their success.

According to Coach Wolcott, "The team played with a lot of pride and teamwork — they show much talent for the future."

Shadle Park's Freshman Volleyball team completed an excellent season, going undefeated the entire season. Due to excellent team cooperation and spirit, they went on to win the city championships.

Coached by Bob Isitt, the enthusistic team was put to a rough test when they went against NC for the city championships, winning both games for the championship.

According to Coach Isitt, "The girls are very enthusiastic and obviously very talented. They know what it takes to be good and they're willing to pay the price."

Tremendous finish for Girls' Cross Country

The Shadle Park girls Cross Country teams had an outstanding season due to tremendous team effort and support. Coached by Evan Bell, all three teams placed high in GSL as well as finishing with fantastic league records.

The Varsity team finished with a 3-5 league record and placed 5th in the GSL meet. The team, composed of four seniors, two sophomores and a freshman, performed admirally well, considering they were in the strongest league in the state. Captain Tammy Carnes and Ann Churchwell were the team's outstanding runners.

Junior Varsity placed third in league with a 6-2 record, losing only to NC and G-Prep. The team's outstanding runners were Kathy O'Shields, Ann Brashear, and Kathy Murphy.

The freshman team had an outstanding season going unbeaten in league and winning the GSL district meet. The freshman team's outstanding runners were Laura Parker, Stacy Erickson, and Bridget McCarvel. Laura alos competed on the Varsity team.

According to Coach Bell, "The future looks bright for Girls' Cross-Country for the next three years. Currently Shadle has the best freshman and sophomores that we've ever had since cross country began in 1974."

Cross country gave new meaning to the word spirit

Shadle's 1982 Boys' Cross Country team will go down in the record books as one of the great State teams. Both the varsity and junior varsity teams ran the entire season without a loss. The 60 Shadle athletes began the season with an impressive show at the Highlander Invitational winning three out of four divisions with eleven teams competing. Shadle' seniors placed seven runners in the top dozen, taking the first five places. Shadle went on to dominate the Richland Invitational by winning every division with 30 high schools participating. The following week Shadle stopped Ferris' 23 dual meet winning streak by placing five runners ahead of the Saxon's number two runner. After winning the district meet with the lowest score in ten years, our "Awesome Seven" traveled to Seattle to run away with Shadle's third state championship.

Their strong, steady, consistent running as a team enabled Shadle Park to win the state championship with the second lowest score ever. Their impressive and overwhelming victory solidified Shadle as premier running power.

Much of this year's success team members credit to Coach Page, and his enthusiasm, positive attitude and fine coaching. Coach Page, typically gives all his praise to the runners and their never-failing efforts and spirit.

Bowlers keep striking all the way to state

The Highlander's bowling team did a great job this year, sending both of the teams to State.

Shadle has had a team since the school opened, yet the sport still hasn't received letter status.

The boys' team took 3rd in the city and placed 6th in State. The captain of the team was Randy Monroe, while the coach was Lee Fredberg.

The girls' team also took 3rd in the city and placed 19th in State. The girls were coached by Judy Calkins. Both teams have showed lots of school spirit while at their tournaments.

Shadle's squads practiced regularly at Imperial Lanes and competitions were held between schools at various bowling alleys in the city. Bowling is one of the lifelong sports that Shadle students can participate in and the skills and time invested in bowling will be used throughout their lives. Though not a widely known activity, our bowling teams were very exciting to watch and hopes are high that the sport will continue to grow, and gain support.

Undefeated soccer teams finishes in first place

The Shadle soccer team did an outstanding job this year going through the season undefeated. They tied for 1st place at the end of the fall season with North Central. The team had many returning players and with the help of a few newcomers showed that Shadle is competitive in the sport.

Both defensive and offensive units were strong this year which gave the team a very balanced attack. The defense wasn't scored on for the first five games and held the total goals scored against them for the season at only four. The offense was also outstanding, scoring more goals than every other team in the league but one.

The spring season looks very promising as all of last season's players will be returning and several other players from different teams.

Most of the matches are played at the Soccer Complex but the team has had to travel as far as Cheney to compete.

Soccer is a very demanding sport because it is so fast moving. It is a great way to get and stay in shape as the matches are played in two forty-minute halfs; one hour and twenty minutes worth of hard running. And the excitement never fails to impress all fans who attend.

Talented S.P. gymnasts place high in meet

Shadle Gymnastics showed endurance throughout the season. They won 4 meets and lost 2 which gave them a placing of 3rd at the district meet. The all around outstanding gymnasts were seniors Tamie Turman, and Shaela Leaver, Cecilia Reimers was outstanding on the balance beam.

The best meet of the year was the North Central meet, where Shadle scored 126 and North Central 79. This was Shadle's highest score this season.

The season was good although hampered by injuries late in the season, the team really pulled together for the final meet.

Assistant coach Ward stated, "We had lots of talent and should do well next year because we have some good, young girls."

"Tamie was our most consistent gymnast and Shaela provided excitement with several spectacular falls." Coach Pugh also commented, "I am so proud of the girls' determination and dedication they showed this season. They could have given up after injuries but they didn't!"

Shadle hockey team dominates league play

This year Shadle's awesome hockey team once again proved to be number one, by taking first place in the Greater Spokane League and district playoffs.

The team was made up of 6 returning players and 8 persistent rookies, who helped a tremendous amount even though this was their first season with the team.

Leading scorer and captain, Dan Elliott, and penalty minute leader, Ted Duncan took the team to a 16 win, 3 losses, and 1 tie season. Larry Archibald was best known for his slap shot, which terrified most goalies. Randy Silvrants and Ted Duncan worked hard together in bringing the team to their victories.

Also returning from last year's winning team was Coach Wayne Blair and Assistant coach Ron Silvrants. They were a great inspiration to the team and the players would like to thank the Silvrants family for all their hard work and dedication throughout the season.

Hockey is a fast growing sport and one that offers a lot of excitement for fans. The team hopes to see both attendance and support grow next year, as they expect to repeat their dominance of league play. The team has demonstrated much skill as well as toughness on the ice to stay in first place throughout the season and has appreciated all the support they did receive.

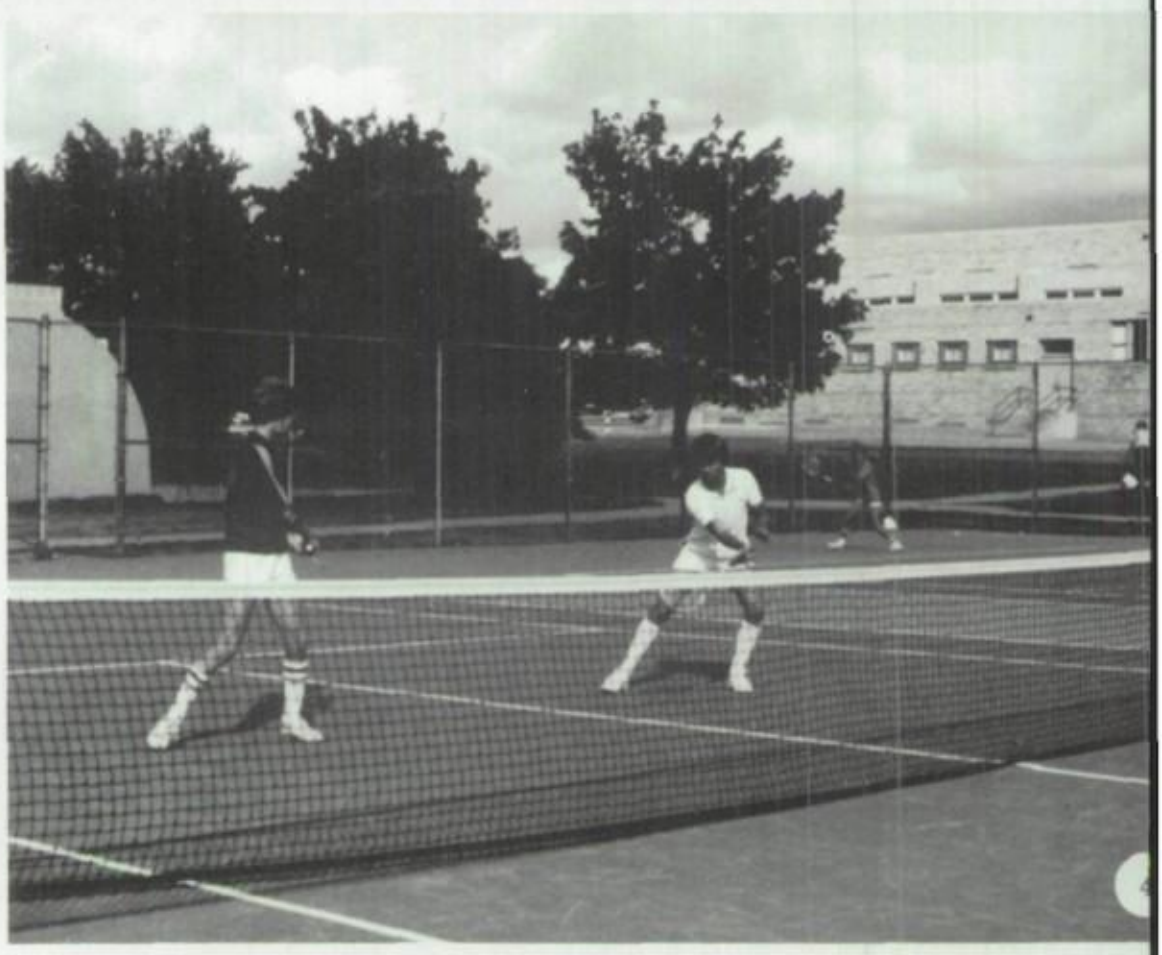
Tennis teams have successful seasons



The Highlander Girls' Tennis team did a super job this year. Winning with high scores against their opponents, they were sure of a high ranking finish. They finished their fall season with a placing of 6th.

The team plans to come back with more style than ever next year to take first in state and G.S.L.

The most helpful and influential player for the team was Lori Akiyama. Mr. Whitman did a fine job coaching these girls.

Shadle's Boys' Tennis did a great job this season winning 4 and losing only 2. They tied for 3rd place. Coach Pugh said, "I'm real pleased the way the team performed this fall and they are sure to improve this spring." They had some fine players, such as Barry Graham, who could possibly be the best singles player in the League. He was runner up in the fall in G.S.L.

The top tennis players in the single category were Barry Graham, Phillip Lee, Kevin Mack, Sam Otterstrom, and John Yuse. In the doubles category were Reed Fenn and Scott Hammel, and Cam Nachtsheim and Jeff Argrella. The number one doubles team lost only one match to Mead.

I have some good young players out there. Some of the other team members were Kevin Christie, Jim Kellogg, Mike Kolb, and John Pelo. Most of these players will be returning next year to make a strong team.

Well rounded J.V. boys undisputed league leaders

Shadle "B" Squad finished their season with a 17-3 overall record and a 15-1 League record. The only loss of the regular season came against Gonzaga in the first round. Shadle regained the league lead by beating prep the 2nd time around. The Highlanders ended their season by defeating C.V. 100-54, and put them in undisputed first place, in the league. Shadle's fine "B" squad averaged 66 points per game this year while holding their opponents to 53 points per game. Balanced individual scoring, a strong press, and excellent field goal shooting percentage were the main reasons why the Boys' "B" Squad Basketball team was successful this year.

Shooting ability proves key to frosh success

Boys' Freshmen Basketball finished the year with a 6-4 record in league and 7-6 record overall. We were the smallest team in our league, but we proved that it is quality, not quantity that makes a team. We did this by only losing two games.

The Frosh team averaged 64.8 points a game to our opponents 55.2. Which proves that Shadle will have a good basketball team for the next four years.

This season was a very good one. All of the players played to their fullest ability. The highlight of the year was beating N.C., our biggest rival, twice with very close scores of 56-55 and 43-42. Shadle will be fortunate to have these ball players returning next year.

Varsity girls secure second place in league

Varsity girls' basketball team came in second in league with a 12 win, 4 loss record.

The team which was composed of nine seniors and one sophomore, played with as much skill as any team ever at Shadle. "Their hard work in practice and commitment to the excellence of the team made this the best coaching experience ever!" Ms. Sheridan, the girls' coach said. She also said with extreme exuberance, "I am so proud of the ability, sportsmanship, and class attitude exhibited by every member of this team. The class of '83 is tops".

Outstanding season turned in by J.V. girls

The Highlander's Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball finished overall in second place, with a league record of 13 wins and 3 losses. Kelli Anderson, Sophomore, and Lisa Carnes, Junior, were leading scorers, Kelli with 224 points, and Lisa with 92. Leading rebounders were Kelli, and Junior Kim Wilbur, and the leading assists were Julie Brunette, sophomore, and Junior Nicole Tutt. Shadle Park girls outscored their opponents with 1040 points to 958.

The memorable moment for the girls was their win over the Richland Bombers and the Central Valley Bears. Their win over the C.V. Bears by seven points is the one that put them in second place in the Greater Spokane League. "We had an outstanding and fun season!" exclaimed Coach Parton. He obviously was pleased with his team.

Strong freshmen team number 1 in city league

Shadle Park Freshmen Girls' Basketball team had an excellent season. They started the season losing only 1 game to rival Gonzaga Prep. Then won 12 straight games making them #1 in the city. Tracy Kisro was the all around outstanding player. She had a total of 210 points this season, and grabbed 138 rebounds. Other super players were Mari Brown, Geneva Jacobson, and Sonnet Thornsburry. Since these girls are Freshmen, Shadle can look forward to a promising basketball future. Mari was the key in breaking opponents' passes. Geneva, all 6'1" of her, started many fast breaks with her outlet passes. Sonnet's big game was against N.C. where she made 13 of 16 shots as Shadle piled up an incredible 77 points.

Wrestlers make their mark in tournament action

The Shadle Park wrestlers were able to display greater amounts of stamina and endurance this season than they have in recent years. Shadle's wrestling team was able to end up 8th in the league, and 5th place in both the district and regional tournaments. With only three members representing the team during a stiff competition at State, Shadle was placed at 9th out of 68 teams, the highest placing team in the G.S.L. next to the State Champions, Mead. The team was led by seniors Chris Boni, Joe Cleary, Rowdy Welch, Chris Harvill, Mark Rahner, Tim Brown, Paul Bombino, Conner Flynn and Joe Gately, who are all lettermen. Rowdy Welch was able to clinch 3rd at both Districts and Regionals, while big man Chris Boni took 1st at Districts and Regionals and captured the 3rd seed spot at State. Chris was also named outstanding wrestler at the Rathdrum Tournament, finishing the season with an awesome record of 27-1 which is the best Shadle has seen in the past 10 years. Joe Cleary was able to use his one-hundred and ninety pound body to also take 1st place at Districts and Regionals. While at State, Joe was able to pin two of his opponents, but was unable to place second, losing in overtime. The highlights of the season for the boys was winning the team trophy at Rathdrum and the consolation trophy at the Colville and Springdale tournaments. Coach Close was quoted as saying "We started slow and finished strong, the Seniors were the backbone of the team."

Strong finish tops varsity boys' season

Under new coach, Jim Groves, Shadle's Varsity Basketball team once again proved us proud to be the Highlanders. Their season started slow but finished strong leading us to state with a record of 14-8, and in the Greater Spokane League 11-5. Tom Yearout, John Nillis, Jerry Peterson, Brian Rheingans and Craig Constance were power sources for the team, and Tom was named to the G.S.L. All City First Team.

The strengths of the Highlander team was evidenced by their outstanding season statistics which included Field goal % 475, Free throw % 68, and average points made per game were 68. Personal averages per game were Brian Rheinigans 18 points and 10 rebounds; Jerry Peterson 10 points and 7 rebounds; John Nilles 11 points and 7 rebounds; Tom Yearout 12 points and 8 assists.

The GSL can look forward to tough competition again next year from the Shadle Highlanders with 8 returning players from our team this year. The consistent and determined play of the team made them unbeatable by the end of the season as they came back strong to dominate district play and gel as a unit. The impressive individual skills of team players combined with the strength of a team playing well together made Shadle Park basketball exciting and fun to watch.

Skilled Shadle team narrowly misses at state

With an excellent second half of their season behind them, the Shadle Varsity boys went on to gain 1st place in district playoffs with 3 hard fought wins over Ferris, Lewis & Clark and Gonzaga, and missed first place seeding in Regionals when they battled it out with Walla Walla but were caught short by 1 point. Then a 15 point victory over Pasco sent them to state for the third year in a row. There they suffered two more heartbreaking 1-point losses, the first in overtime to Garfield, the team which went on to win the state championship and the second to Oak Harbor in a difficult battle. Shadle Park then finished the year with a strong seventh place standing in the state and a season record they can well be proud of.

Varsity softball proves to be out going

The Varsity Softball Team was faced with a few hurdles this year, one of which was only three varsity players returning to the team. Also experience began to knock at the team's door as mostly sophomores and juniors filled the empty spots.

As coach Denny Petek began his second year coaching he feels that the team will do well especially down the stretch. Melinda Varns, Laura Benjamin and Krista Dunn, are the experienced leaders and form the nuclus for the team. Coach Petek feels the team has a great attitude and are very coachable. The hitting is improving and will be a good hitting team. Defensively the infield should be reasonably strong.

J.V. softball a team of unity

Shadle's Junior Varsity Team shows that we have a strong future in softball.

The team consists of mostly sophomores and therefore next year will bring a promising season. On the plates this year we have an excellent infield with Vicky Gately and Molley Mayer, both sophomores. The team also has a powerful hitting force led by Kelli Anderson and Maria Johnson. Shadle's great pitchers are Jodi Moscatelli, a junior, and Shelly Hanson. The team is one of unity, they work together and have fun.

Varsity baseball proves to be powerful

Shadle's Varsity Baseball team started this year with a combination of players looking to finish on top of the 1983 GSL standings.

After a very large turnout, the squad was left with eleven players returning from last year's state finalists team, including starters Derek Murashige, Vinni Barranco, Tom Yearout, Tony Brown, Shandy Cobane and Dave Krause. A strong five-man pitching staff also added to the balance of Shadle's attack. The outfield proved to be very sturdy and the infield very tight.

Coach Brown stated that this team has a good chemistry and should have a fine season.

J.V. baseball holds strong future for S.P.

This spring, the turnout for Varsity and J.V. Baseball was very big. Due to the large turnout, it is the first year Shadle has had a crop of juniors playing on the Varsity team.

The team started out full steam ahead as they took on West Valley, Mead, East Valley, and North Central, losing only to North Central by one point.

The backbone of the team came from a fabulous four-man pitching staff which consisted of Mike Dickey, Kyle Davis, Dennis Bricker, and last year ace, Bill Eloxman. The rest of the team proved to be a hard hitting, strong defensive ball club that Mr. Brooks said, "Should be tomorrows varsity successors."

Shadle girls' track increases in size and skill

The Girls' Track Team this year underwent an increase in size. Part of this growth was due to the large numbers of freshmen girls who turned out. The larger numbers gave a great advantage to the team and utilized 11 members throughout the season on the Frosh, J.V. and Varsity teams adding to the overall strength of all.

Besides competing in the GSL meets, the team participated in many other local and invitational meets such as the Strandbert Relays, the Mooberry Relays and the Pasco Invitational. This full schedule of competition sharpened the girls' skills and aided in the development of team spirit and competition.

Well rounded track team forceful to the finish

The Highlander's Track Team is very strong overall. It is possible that this year the team will be the best Shadle has ever seen. The track team is very persistent in its running events, and terrific in field events. The team itself is the largest track team ever, consisting of over 180 athletes. With Mr. Page as coach, one can be sure the team will be extremely spirited. He feels that the year will have many students at the State Meet. The team is powerful and will most likely have the strongest relay team in the state.

They were very exciting to watch as they overwhelmed their opponents and set the pace for GSL track.

1. Row 1: Guy Davey, Jay Elgin, Gary Leach, Bob Pebles, Keith Hoekama, Brian Varker, Mark Beryl, Greg Jones. Row 2: Todd McAllister, Craig Clark, Mark Banks, Stan Holman, Aaron Magner, Dave Birch, Dennis Magner, Ben Brantl, Kevin Johnston, Brian Groves. Row 3: Kevin Lyons, Peter Quint, Conner Flynn, Steve Sarf, John Koke, Dave Neil, Rick Rice, Brian Cole. 2. John Munstrum "flying high" over the hurdles. 3. Doug Storr building speed before his take off jump. 4. Joe Groves gets ready to hurl the shotput, as Shadle is expected to do well in field events this year. 5. As they round the corner, the race shows to be close with Kevin Johnston and Dave Dirch leading the way, but Rick Rice is on their tails. 6. Golf swings into action

Last year the Greater Spokane League boys' and girls' golf programs were combined into one program with one coach for both girls and boys. The fall season was dropped and March was added to the spring golf season, making it an eleven week season.

Golf requires coordination, concentration, and confidence. Many members of this year's team possessed these qualities as well as a desire to do their best.

The team's home course is in Downriver and they play each G.S.L. twice, and also the Inland Empire Tournament. The boys' Varsity and Junior Varsity teams consists of six members on each squad and the girls have four members per squad. The winner of a match is determined by stroke play, lowest score winning. The boys play 18 holes and the girls 9. The best 5 out of 6 scores for the boys and 3 out of 4 for the girls determine the team winner.

The GSL League champion is a direct entry to the State Tournament. The second representative is determined at Inland Empire and a Competition match a week after Inland Empire.

Seniors make last year a profitable one

Cindy Kneip, Chris Harvill, Yvonne Smith, Wendy Hagen, Debbie Sunberg.

Fall semester officers

The class of '83 has been successful in academics, athletics, and spirit. Our senior year has been no exception. The biggest activity of the fall was the Senior Luau, original of our class. Activities proceeding the luau were; the parking spot raffle, spirit car contest and caravan, Halloween dress up contest, powder-puff football (Yeah Seniors!) and Highlander T-shirt sale.

The class also started plans for the Senior Prom. An original idea of the class was the recognition of outstanding seniors as "Senior of the Week." The goal of the officers was to unite the senior class and to raise spirit. I would like to thank Chris Harvill, Yvonne Smith, Debbie Sunberg, Wendy Hagen, and our advisors, Mrs. Elias and Mr. Carney. The best of luck!

Cynthia E. Kneip
Fall '83 President

Todd Mielke, Davd West, Laura Boole, Suzette Evans, Frances Baunach.

Spring semester officers

I have often thought of the Senior class as definitely the place to be in '83. They include students who are talented in several areas and are basically some of the best people I've had the privilege of knowing. Since the beginning of Spring, an increasing interest in graduation activities was noticed. The seniors organized events such as dances, pizza feeds, T-shirt sales, and the Senior Production. It was all drawn to a close after the Senior Prom and the Senior Luncheon.

I would like to thank the rest of the officers for all their time and devotion; Dave West, Suzette Evans, Frances Baunach, and Laura Boole. The advisors, Mr. Carney and Mrs. Elias, also need be to commended for their hard work. Good luck in the future Seniors!

Todd Mielke
Spring '83 President

Fall semester officers

Though our Class of '84 elections endured a setback a the beginning of the year, the officers rebounded an ended the fall semester a financial and spirited success.

Through the efforts and ideas of the officers and ou advisors, J. Lykes and R. Brooks, a standard was set a well as a precedent among Shadle's previous junior clas

The juniors accepted the challenge and took on th seniors in a Powder-puff football game. It was a clos game and though we barely lost the class was muc changed due to the spirited enthusiasm and endeavor of an all-male cheering squad.

The spirit and pride of the Class of '84 is evident in a the functions and activities we become a part of. I woul personally like to thank our advisors and the othe officers.

Spring semester officers

I would like to express our classes appreciation to Mrs. Lykes and Mr. Brooks for all their help in our class activities dur ing the Spring semester. They have been a great influence in organizing and chaperoning our class activities and meetings.

The spring semester has been an exciting one. We've had a lot of fun planning our junior prom and other various activitie which the Class of '84 has been in charge of. I would like to thank the fellow officers; Janelle Ruffcorn, Debbie Hoffman Tammi Soo, and Kathy Murphy. Without their help there would have been a big difference in the Spring Semester.

The class of 85

is coming alive

Sophomores off to a good start

Fall semester officers

I would like to give a big thanks to Mr. Mendoza for all his patience, understanding, and help. I'd also like to thank the other officers; Lori, Julie, Cindy, and Nikki.

Even though we got a late start, I feel we accomplished quite a lot. I'd like to give a big thanks to everyone. The best of luck and lets make these next two years our very best.

Spring semester officers

The semester was very successful as we had five officers, two returning from last semester, with some really outstanding ideas. We worked togehter and, under the leadership of Mr. Mendoza put some of the better ideas to use. The Heartstopper sales being one of these projects. We'd certainly like to thank Mr. Mendoza for everything he did for us during the semester.

The class of '85 has a lot of potential to do some great things before it is graduated. I wish luck to every project that the class undertakes during the remaining two years.

1983 was a time for taking advice, learning and being challenged

Mr. Jack Mathews, Principal his pride in Shadle shows

Showing the students that he really cares is probably the easiest part of his job. Mr. Mathews enjoys being principal of Shadle Park High School and it shows. He takes a very active interest in all his students and all that they do. You can see him everyday in the halls talking with kids or at games cheering our teams on. His pride in Shadle shows. He knows you and you can count on his always being there.

Mr. Mathews has been the principal at Shadle for four years. He says that, being Shadle Park's principal has been the greatest experience of my life."

Mr. Mathews has many job roles; that of administration head, decision maker, organizer, to name a few. He takes charge of the many activities Shadle students are active in, seeing that the welfare of the students is being kept in perspective, and Shadle's reputable name is lived up to in everyone's eyes.

Dr. Geri O'dell
makes things work

Many new changes were in store for Shadle Park students this year not the least of which were the additions of two new administrators. Dr. Geri O'dell took over as Assistant Principal of Curriculum. She spent many long hours making sure all students were scheduled properly in classes and seeing that the curriculum was well-rounded containing something for everyone, both major responsibilities of her position. She worked with teachers to assure that all was going smoothly; criteria and requirements were being met. Dr. O'dell seemed to fit easily into the position fulfilling her duties effectively. "This year will be the first of an abiding friendship and allegiance to an outstanding student body and staff," commented Dr. O'dell on her first year at Shadle.

Mr. Don Miller
lends support, spirit

The duties of Assistance Principal of Students is often described as the toughest job around. Mr. Miller may well agree now that he has stepped from his position as Social Studies Department Head to the administrative seat of Assistant Principal. But he too seemed to move easily into his new responsibilities, taking charge-in the first few days of school establishing policies and creating consistencies with which to deal with the myriad of things that come up. Mr. Miller was actively involved with the students and their activities, lending support, enthusiasm and understanding. One of Shadle's biggest fans, Mr. Miller knows the value of pride of students in their school. "After 20 years at Shadle Park, S.P. is part of me," he exclaimed

One can easily see that these two vivacious people have a strong, positive grasp on the Assistant Principal seats.

Counselors care

Shadle counselors are very concerned that students have the most successful experience possible during their high school years.

Mr. Chandler, senior counselor, made certain that seniors had all of their credits and requirements taken care of so they could graduate, and helped them to college.

Mrs. Daisly, Class of 1985, prepared her students for future years at Shadle. In addition, she devoted many, many hours to the A.S.B. as advisor.

Mr. Capello was junior class counselor. He made sure the class of 1984 was ready to begin their final year at Shadle. Also, he ran the career center, giving students a chance for a headstart to prepare for future careers.

Mr. Judd, counselor for the freshmen, acquainted them with the many traditions upheld by the Highlanders.

Making Shadle No.1

Keeping books, assisting students, answering phones and literally a million other things kept the office staff busy. They were always working and ready to lend a helping hand whenever and to whomever needed them. Our secretaries are divided into three offices, business, student and public, each area doing different jobs. But one thing they all did the same was greet each of us cheerfully and with a smile.

The student office staff took care of the students' many needs, directing them to their counselors and helping in a variety of ways. The secretaries in the business office handled Shadle's complex finances. With the addition of sales during K.I.L.T., this was no easy task. And the public office met visitors, officials and parents as they entered the building.

English Staff strong

English came to life this year through the efforts of Shadle's talented English teachers.

Students were helped to become more skilled, articulate and capable in using their own language through their English classes. Yet the department offered a wide range of special courses to suit the talents and desires of almost everyone.

Under the direction of Mike Aleman, the new department head, the curriculum expanded to include Bible as Literature, Creative Writing and Women in Literature, and the Extended Learning Program. This accelerated class was offered to freshmen for the first time this year. Debate was also offered as was Drama and Journalism. And one of Shadle's most unique and popular courses, Humanities, continued to flourish.

"I would like as Department Head, to encourage teachers to continue growing in their profession and seeking ways to improve the education of young people," added Aleman.

All in all a varied and practical yet appealing curriculum was the trademark of the English Department.

Languages merge people, cultures

Foreign Language classes were chosen by a large number of Shadle students. Whether taking a language to fill the required "two years" for college, or just for the sheer pleasure of it, French, German, and Spanish students found the cultures and traditions an interesting part of the class.

A unique addition to the department was Mr. Killenberg, a teacher from Möncheglad-bach, Germany. Mr. Killenberg spent this year at Shadle teaching four German classes and one English class, taking the place of Mrs. Pam Baker, who literally traded place with Mr. Killenberg; jobs, houses, car, and all. He stated, "Jeder, der eine Fremd-sprache lemt, zieht den Hut vor einer anderen Nation." This means, "Everybody who learns a foreign language shows his respect and love for that country and its people."

Business Ed Staff provides job skills

The Business Education department is prepared to provide students with specific job skills usable in today's search for a job. All classes are designed to help students prepare for the future.

Shadle's Business Ed. courses include typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, accounting, Co-op, business math, and Hi DECA. These classes offer learning experiences in such areas as commercial management, industrial work, and occupational work.

Teaching these classes are Mr. Stockman, department head, Mrs. Uyehara, Mrs. Betts, Mr. Constance, Mr. Moe, and Mr. Morlan.

1. Harlow Moe. 2. Bill Constance. 3. Bob Stockman. 4. Anne Uyehara. 5. Jim Morlan. 6. Gloria Betts.

Social Studies looks at the world

Social Studies is the science of world cultures; it's peoples and history. The social studies program was handled quite well by Shadle's twelve teachers. Courses included are Current World Affairs, Economics, American Government, Sociology, Humanities, and Psychology. All of these classes provided a good background for students and a wider knowledge of ourselves, and the world.

Mr. Williams, as new Department Head, taking the place of Mr. Miller, stated, "I would like to thank the members of the Social Studies department for the great support and cooperation they have given me in my first year as department head. They are a fine bunch of people to work with."

Science is key to understanding life

The Science Department is working toward the development of scientific literacy and the usefulness of science and technology in advancing our modern society in today's world, at the same time preparing for tomorrow changes.

We feel that science is an integral part of a complete program of education, developing the capabilities of each student. Science experiences emphasize the processes, skills and basic understanding by which the principles and concepts of science are derived and applied to everyday living.

Courses this year included Biology, the study of organisms, Physiology, the study of the human body, Chemistry, the study of our physical universe and Physics the study of energy and matter. And one of the more unusual offerings from the Science Department this year was Oceanography a fascinating study of the frontier below the sea. Taught by Mr. Whitman, it was an opportunity for students to explore marine biology.

Math courses challenge students' minds

"Math is fun, or else . . ." was the theme for this year's Math Department, according to Mr. Leigh, department head. Through the efforts of all the other skilled teachers, math did turn out to be fun for most students. Even the most complex problems seemed solvable.

Algebra prepared students for future math classes, touching upon the basics of the next class, Geometry. In Geometry, students study proofs, tangents, solids, and lines in getting ready for furthering their math career. Intermediate math included trigonometry, and from there students went to advanced math and calculus. Senior math was for those students having not filled their math credits, and taught them skills used in everyday living.

Courses were challenging as well as practical, taxing each student's capabilities while meeting their needs.

Computer math rounded out the course offerings. Students learned the valuable future skill of computer programming.

Art is expression

"All people in this world have a need and must 'give evidence' or signify something," said Mrs. Halseth. This is just what the Art Department provides, a way for students to express their emotions, ideas, and feelings in an individualitic way.

Taught by Mrs. Halseth and Mrs. Olson, art is different than any other program at Shadle. It allows students to reveal themselves in a way nothing else can. This can be very good therapy as it encourages students to get in touch with their in-nerselves, leading to better self awareness and a better self image.

Basic art, Lettering, Ceramics, Painting, Creative Drawing, and Senior Studio are all classes included in this program.

Music program pride of S.P.

Shadle's Music Department teachers, Mr. Spitzer and Mr. Snyder, shared their talents with students who were willing to commit themselves to the hard work that was needed to make Shadle's band, choirs and orchestra outstanding.

Under the direction of Mr. Snyder, the band played during half-time at Shadle games, and the orchestra accompanied the cast of the annual musical, "Music Man."

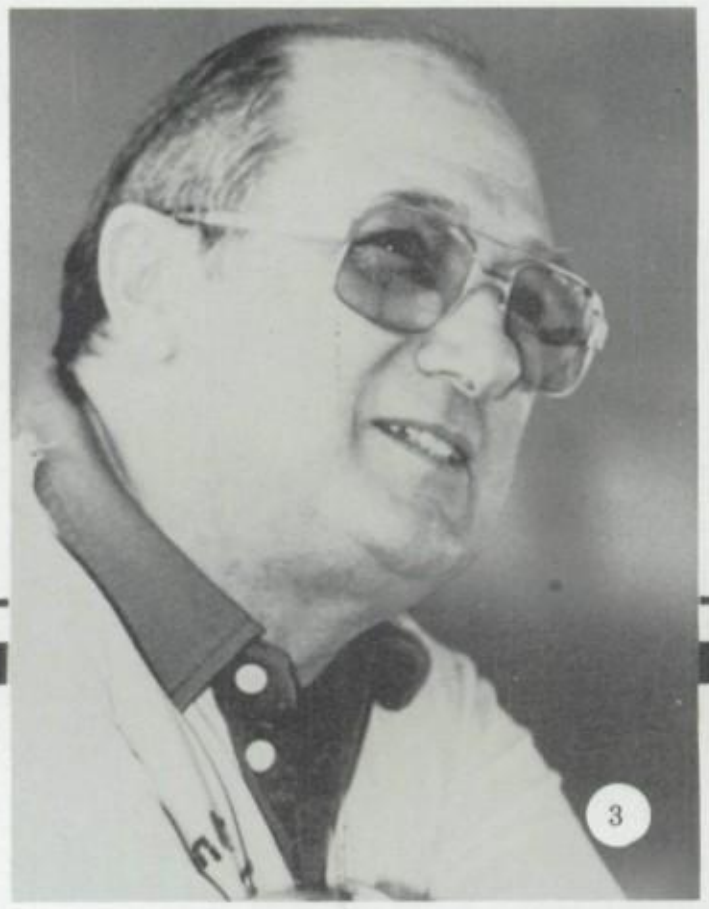
Mr. Spitzer said, "This year choral music at Shadle Park has made tremendous strides. Our students show not only outstanding talent, but an understanding exhibited in their day to day work of the value of working together. Their hard work proved itself in competitions. They were hired by many organizations to sing, allowing Shadle once again to show its spirit and pride.

1. Bill Snyder. 2. Randy Spitzer. 3. Claudia Halseth. 4. Nancy Olson.

P.E. department emphasizes health for a liftime

P.E. at Shadle offers students a variety of activities to chose from; bowling to basketball, weight-lifting to wrestling, to get them involved and experienced in all sports, both individual and team. From these classes it is hoped that students will become more aware of the importance of a healthy body and exercise. The seemingly tireless efforts of the P.E. staff all went toward that goal. Yet the day never ended for many of the staff as they spent long hours coaching Shadle's excellent teams.

Athletic Director Jim Elvington, spent many hours coordinating the sporting activities that took place during the year. Coach Sheridan worked hard at preparing her varsity basketball and volleyball girls for competition. Coaches for the track team were Mrs. Olson and Mr. Baily, and Mr. Brown headed up the varsity baseball team.



1. Chuck Bailey. 2. Jim Brown. 3. Clyde Combs. 4. Jim Elvington. 5. Linda Sheridan.

Home Ec develops interpersonnel skills

Someday everyone, both men and women, will have the responsibility of being a "homemaker" either alone or with others. This is why techniques such as cooking and sewing are so important. These are not, however, the only skills emphasized in a Home Ec. class. Nutrition, child care and development, relationships with others as well as understanding ourselves better are all included in the learning process and goals of this department. There are many things to be learned in a Home Ec. class; things about ourselves and others around us.

Applied Economics, Foods and Advanced Foods, clothing consruction, fabric boutique, housing, child development and exploring childhood, human relations and singles living were all courses included in this department.

An exceptional addition to the Home Ec. area is the Food Service program open to juniors and seniors who have jobs related to the foods area. They operate like a club and compete in food fairs. We can find the food service students making cookie grams, catering for special requests and cake decorating, among other things.

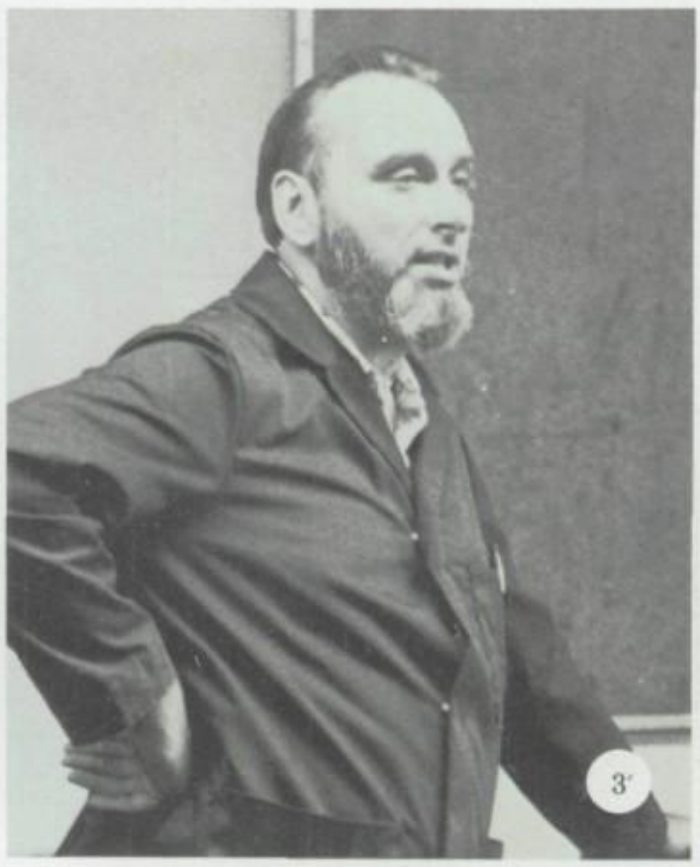
Creative talents shown in Industrial Arts

This year's Industrial Arts classes brought to light the many talents of Shadle students as they were able to create and construct many useful and beautiful projects. The program is one of the broadest in the district, offering many diverse opportunities.

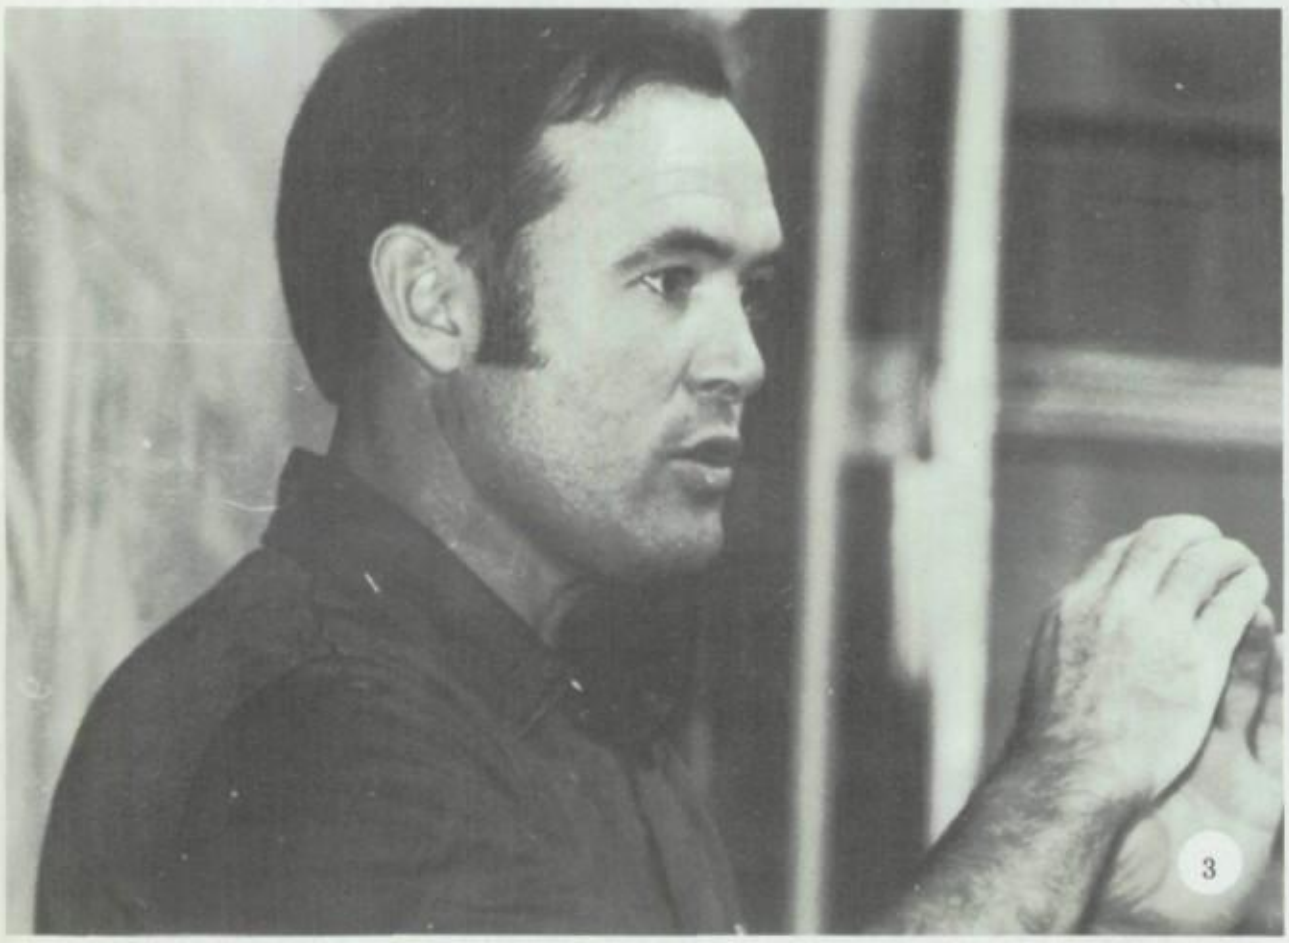
The Industrial Arts classes included auto mechanics, metals and woods, photography, and drafting. The students learned everything from overhauling an engine to making a waterbed.

The skills learned in these classes will be useful throughout the lives of the students, whether they plan to make use of them in a future occupation or just in their everyday lives.

In fact, Shadle Park benefits directly from the efforts of the staff and students as they are called on to help with special projects around the building.



1. Bob Jones. 2. Tom Moisan. 3. Don Sanborn. 4. Ron Clipperton. 5. Terry Brandon.



1. Becky Ruark. 2. Judy Morstad. 3. Dale Selle. 4. Marilyn Matulich. 5. Chuck Potter. 6. Hearing Interpreters: Diana Marie, Beverly Cook, Debbie Bequette, Evelyn Taylor, Deb Jones. 7. Dave Henry, 8. Marcia Hamre.

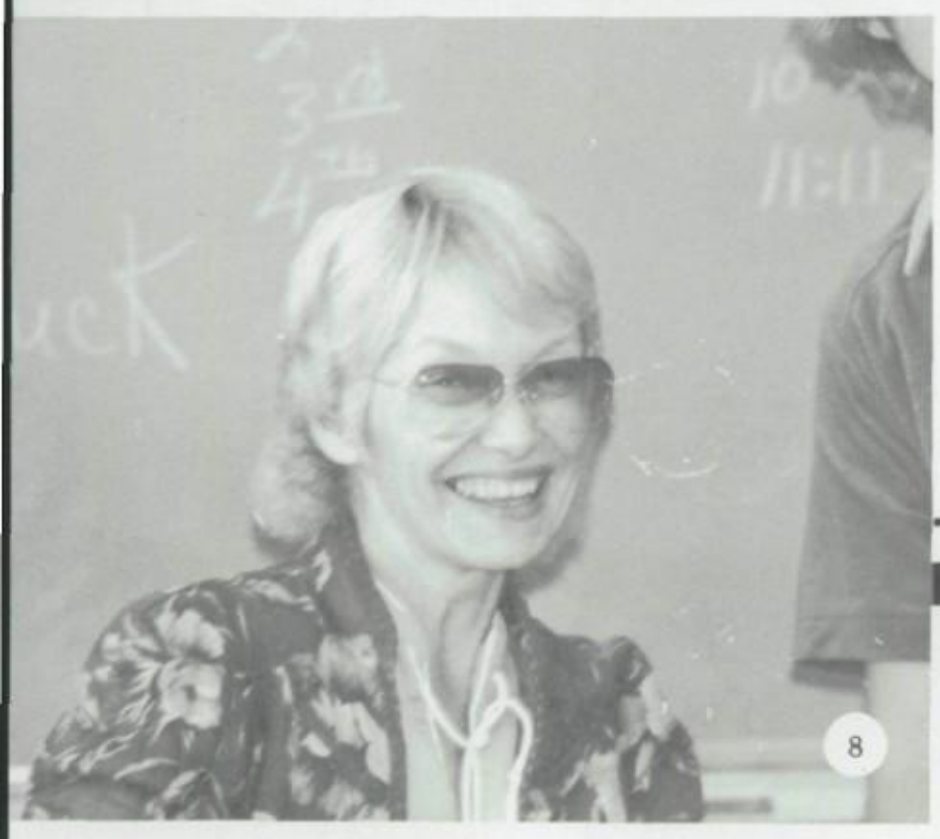
Special programs are invaluable

A unique part of Shadle's offerings are the Specialty areas, which are designed to meet the special needs of students.

One of the newest of these programs in the Hearing Impaired classes. Shadle is the only school in the surrounding area which houses these students, providing them with instruction and interpreters. Headed by Dale Selle, the Interpreters accompany the students to their classes and sign what is being said. This innovative program enables the hearing impaired student to be involved.

Traffic Safety Education is also a special class taught by Mr. Henry. It prepares students who want to learn to drive safely and efficiently.

Mrs. Morstad and Mrs. Maltulich were always on hand to find those books that should have been read two weeks ago for the report due tomorrow. "The library should be the hub of the school. Here is stored the wisdom and knowledge of the past and present for the use of the makers of the future," said Mrs. Morstad, head librarian.



Mr. Potter and Mrs. Ruark worked with students, training them in various skills needed to find a good job. Many of these students could be found helping in and around the school, such as in the cafeteria during the lunches.

Year goes smooth, staff works hard

Shadle cooks made feeding a straving mob of teenagers look easy, and it really is no easy task as it almost takes magic to turn "school food" into something edible. Our cooks proved it could be done, by serving nutritional lunches we all could enjoy.

Maintaining a large school like Shadle can be quite a job, but our custodians made sure that Shadle Park was clean and safe for all. On snowy winter days, we could always count on Dick Potter and his staff to clear a pathway from the main building to the annex. The busy custodians kept Shadle in the best working condition, making it a pleasant place for students, faculty and visitors. Once again we see the pride in Shadle we all share showing through.

Teacher

Mikey, this is your tummy speaking . . .

Mike Aleman: Dear Sporran, Just coming to Shadle Park has been terrific. The environment, the view from my window, the students and staff are all memorable for me. It has been an exciting year. Remember, it's not the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog.

Shirley Anderson: What can I say!! It is really nice working in the Student Office and getting to know the Shadle Students . . . they are GREAT!!

Chuck Baily: MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Only team in state of Washington to beat State Champions in football. FAVORITE SAYING: "Freshmen Wienies" "Wish in one hand" I hope my students forget me, because I want to forget them.

Gloria Betts: FEELINGS: Shadle is very special to me. The atmosphere has a happy ring. The students are generally optimistic and the teachers always have a positive attitude. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: The keyboarding class (Used to be Typing 1) includes the electronic calculator and a computer keyboard too — it has been very exciting for me to learn how to use both the computer and the electronic calculator so I can teach it to the students. FAVORITE SAYING: My favorite saying is to have the students memorize "If it is to be, it is up to me!"

Bob Cappello: FEELINGS: This is the school for me. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Just living and enjoying every minute of it. FAVORITE SAYING: "Spend your life for something that will outlast it!"

Kathleen Carroll: There, (homophone for their) are, (not our) a lot, (two words) of, (not off) wonderful, (only one "L") memories, (change the "y" to "i" and add "es") of Shadle Park (capitalize both words) FEELINGS. Seriously, I am thankful for the opportunity to teach eager, receptive students. Seeing so many of you make that transition from "young teen" to "near adult" is a treasure I'll long remember.

Wayne Chandler" FAVORITE SAYINGS: Do It Now!! I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any fellow human being let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect; for I shall not pass this way again.

Ron Chattin: FEELINGS: I have been teaching at Shadle Park since 1961. I think that I am beginning to look, feel and even act like Mr. Chipping in the book Goodbye Mr. Chipps, by James Hilton. It is safe to say that I like the School. SAYINGS: They range from the gutteral "Achtung!" to basic ZULU. I can only hope my students remember the Adage — "Ask not what you can do to history, rather ask what history will do to me."

Larry Clark: The quivering, crying source, that fly through the walls, windows, and halls of Shadle Park, that sound like the howling winds, is of course not wind, but the suffering cry of the souls forever buried and never free from the cold dark night when they were lost in the wall at the creation of the body of the school. — So it be, may they someday rest in peace.

Dan Close: MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: My most memorable experience this year, as it is every year, was coaching. I've never enjoyed a group of young men more. I've always enjoyed coaching and this year's group of athletes, especially the seniors, made it even better. Thanks guys!! SAYINGS: You can't print all of my favorite sayings but it starts out "Action talks . . ."

Karen Cockburn: It has been great getting reacquainted with so many former students. Shadle High School has so many outstanding traditions and functions, I'm enjoying becoming a part of them. SAYING: "That's intriguing!"

Clyde Combs: FEELINGS: After 28 years it's still the greatest! MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: The day winter vacation started. SAYING: "What does that have to do with the price of apples?" Remember the "fun" in the Fundamentals of Water Safety.

Barb Cozad: Shadle Park High School has some of the most cooperative and talented students I have ever worked with. The parents support our efforts with enthusiasm and that makes our job much easier. I suppose the discovery that I am now teaching with a student who sat in my classroom in 1958-59 was one of the startling experiences of this year. That was 25 years ago, wasn't it Dave Gunderson? My — how the time flies when you're having fun. The plays and Musicals we have done here at Shadle and the Students I've come to know so well through working with the cast will always be the fondest and most vivid memories of my years at Shadle. I wish all of these young people a happy and successful life.

The "Great" classroom atmosphere!!

Jan Daisley: MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Fall Semester A.S.B. has had many memorable events — it's hard not to see them all because the officers have been so great! Special Hi-points: 3 days in Yakima, Wash. Assoc. of Student Councils with 10 great leaders, Great Success of '82 A.S.B. Christmas Project, Todd Milke runs for Spokane councilman, etc., etc., etc. SAYING: A.S.B. has become like the Proverbial "young Preacher" — "They are always Working to beat Hell." FEELINGS: How lucky can I be to have the blessing of working with such great individuals as those which run student government at Shadle. It's a thrill a minute! As a counselor I'd like to be remembered as a good listener, helper and guide. As A.S.B. adviser — that after much experience, I have come to learn that at the present moment, whatever it may be, is never a good one for raising money.

Marjorie Davis: FEELINGS: Great bunch of students. Fun school. A lot of activities that I never had in High School. Fantastic staff to work with! SAYING: "I do work here, NO I'm not a student!"

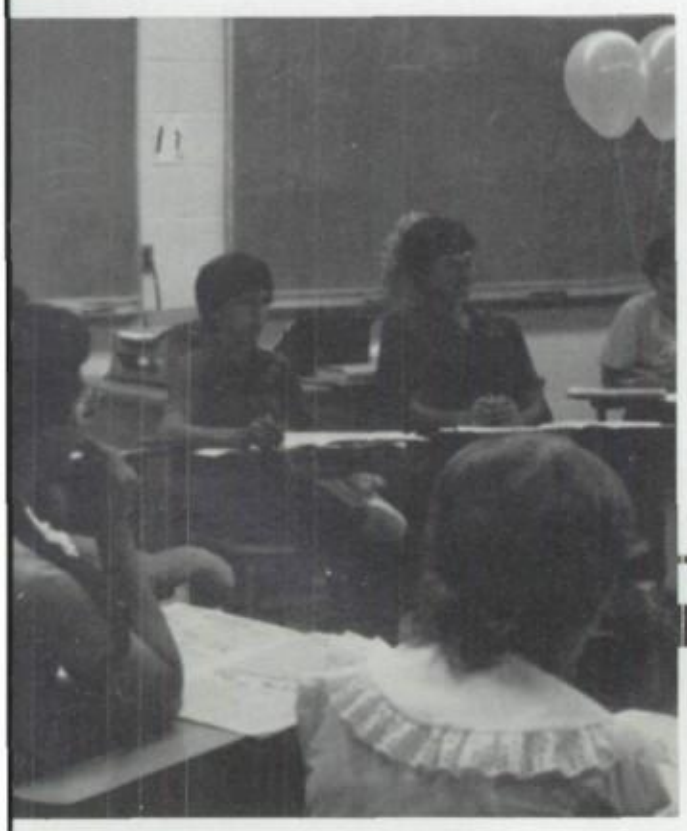
Dori Elias: SAYING: "whist," "ears and eyes," "little old lady!"

Jim Elvington: FEELINGS: Love Shadle!! MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Becoming the new Athletic Director at Shadle Park. SAYING: "Good, better, best, never let it rest till the good is better and the better is best!" That no one can ever criticize you for trying!

Lloyd Fowler: FEELINGS: Proud to be a Highlander. SAYING: "On the Agenda today . . ." "High school is the best time of your life" Concerned about all my students and a friend to all.

JoAnn Giffing: FEELINGS: Number 1 in every way. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Everyday is a unique, exciting challenge and experience. SAYING: "Haste Makes Waste!!" I'd like my students to remember me as sensitive and caring.

Jim Groves: FEELINGS: The best High School in the U.S. of A. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Becoming Head B.B. Coach.



Look you guys, one more time and I quit!

Dave Gunderson: Think! Think! Think! How many times have you heard this over the years. The five letter word might come after you miss an assignment or make an error in judgment. The person who can think under pressure is a real asset to society. Most of us aren't smart enough to think about several things at once and do a good job in all of them. We must practice assimilating facts, sort them out and make a decision. As we think with our mind so we are. We are going t be what we think. Our level of proficiency in life is going to be in direct proportion to how we apply our minds and concentrate. THINK!

Claudia Halseth: Superficially there is negligence, but deep down in people there is love and caring for the beautiful. There are many who live their whole life without every knowing WHEN they have liked or WHAT they have liked.

Denise Harfield: Shadle Park is an exciting place to work! Being involved with all the A.S.B. Clubs and their various projects is a new challenge each day. Actually I love being surrounded by all that $ and finding ways to make more. Even more fun helping clubs spend it!!

Dave Henry: FEELINGS: Shadle Park High is one of the best schools in the country and I feel fortunate to be teaching here. It's really satisfying to interact with the unique individuals who are this school's reason for existence. SAYING: "And there you are!"

Jan Johnson: I think in every class I consistently lose admit or early dismissal slips. Usually they turn up after a 10-15 minute search of my desk. I was told that my two most favorite sayings are "Okay now guys" and "Come on."

Ken Judd: FEELINGS: Very glad to be back at Shadle — It's the best place ever! MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Being on crutches for leg injury. SAYING: What do you mean "you need a pass?"

Gene Kelly: FEELINGS: Best school in the state. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Cafeteria patrol. SAYING: "O.K. People" I'd like my students to remember my kind, cheery disposition.

This is a chalkboard. Can you say chalkboard? Sure you can . . .

Terry Kelly: Remember, it's the sincerity that counts.

Thomas Killenberg: The Shadle Pep-Con, as seen through the eyes of a German. One of the most memorable experiences at Shadle Park High School for me have been the pep-cons. There is no such thing at German schools, mainly because sports does not play any significant role. The enthusiasm of students and teachers, the encouragement that they gain from the cons is remarkable. Everybody can easily identify himself with the school and share the togetherness of the spirit of Shadle. I wish Shadle the same sort of support and success in the future. SHADLE IS NUMBER ONE, as they say!!

Joyce Lykes: FEELINGS: There's nothing like Shadle class and Shadle fans. There's no place I'd rather teach than Shadle Park. The kids are wonderful and the staff is great. Being a "VALLEY GIRL" with Lindeblad, McMahon, and Sheridan was one of the highlights of the year. And seeing the Highlights and Sporran grow into such excellent publications was a thrill. I really respect both staffs for the time they invested and the standards and commitment they maintained. I love them. SAYING: "It's not lost, it's just misplaced." O.K. Toots. Have you lost your mind?!!

Jack Mathews: FEELINGS: Shadle's GREAT!!! Just Remember me.

Cindy McMahon: Wow . . . like, what a "totally tubular" year this has been, "fer sure." I won't forget my Valley girl friends, 'Mrs. Blad', 'Mrs. L,' and 'Squatty'. Like, good luck to all and hope your future is "awesome."

Jim Morlan: FEELINGS: I regret that I have only three more years to give to the green and gold. SAYING: "It boggles my mind." I'd like my students to remember my ghost.

Geri Odell: FEELINGS: Shadle is great. I love good school newspapers, Taco Salad, green, tile walls, being away from the free way, and Ali-American students. I also like winning. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: Winning the district basketball playoffs. The spirit of Shadle fans was unsurpassed. SAYING: We don't need to reinvent the wheel. I would like students to remember me as a humane, understanding person.

Jon Thanks for all your help. Keep up the good work and some day you will by running a golden house.
R Work

Nancy Olson: Much thanks to Kari, Kenna, Sue and Tami fo my new table "0" and giving a different meaning to the wor "scope" Bless you, Slim, Kathy, Todd and Geoff for saving my lif in jewelry. Slim . . . Keep "A KNEELING." And congratulations t my brilliant Homeroom — you were the best way a teacher coul start her day. Wipe the pizza off your face Vinnie! And hey, let's b careful out there!

Vern Page: For me, this year has been a most enjoyable one The excitement of our Cross Country team winning the Stat Championship, the closeness of the staff and attitude of th students made it the best year I can remember.

Denny Petek: FEELINGS: I feel it's the finest High School i the city or the state for that matter! MEMORABLE EX PERIENCE: Finishing 2nd in the city and beating Rogers (the 1s place team in the city) to go to the State Softball Tournament SAYING: "Whistledick," OKAY People, and you turkeys! Hopefully, I'd like my students, to be able to say I learne something which will be helpful to me as I go through life.

Larry Poffenroth: Freshmen Football Rocked a lot of people it was great! The freshmen class fares forward, but the "Rock piles" still live on!

George Ross: My congratulations to the "Little People" of m chemistry classes that somehow grow up and graduate.

Ida Rowe: We can always do more than we think we can, i school, on the job, and in life.

Don Sanborn: Your mother didn't tell you to put your pants o either . . .

Linda Sheridan: A great V.B. and B.B. season with the mos super seniors ever. I think Lindeblad, Lykes, and McMahon as th Valley Girls was a biggie! Not much I'd like them to remember m by, but it would be nice if they would just remember me.

Bill Snyder: If a Being does not keep pace with its companions perhaps it is because it hears a different drummer. Or maybe it' just a lizard.

Randy Spitzer: Being musical is not an end, it is a process. That is, any person serious about music must never be satisfied with th musical status quo but always seek to grow musically. The measure of success in the choral department at Shadle Park is not a list o our "Great Deeds," rather it is a measure of our musical growth both individually and collectively.

Bob Stockman: FEELINGS: Feel close to the students and traditions at Shadle Park. Would not ever want to leave for a dif ferent assignment.

Come on guys, do the assignment.

LaVerna Valle: Roses are red, Violets are Blue . . . "Smile" when you come to the window and I'll "Smile" back at you . . .

Bill Via: My mother said I should have been a Dentist!!!

Dick Wood: FEELINGS: Best school in the State. MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE: The Everett Judging Trip. SAYING: Turn off that stupid Radio and T.V., Where did I put that? I'd like my students to remember — Bald is beautiful, Better a Bald head than none at all.

Our teachers should be given a great deal of thanks for the tremendous part of their lives that they have shared with us. Whether we realize it or not we are all affected by them in some way. Our teachers are people who: we can rely on; educate us, not only in academic areas but life too; and are our friends. We hope that you've enjoyed the comments of those we respect and need so much.

83 Sporran honors work of Dr. Hamre

The past year has been a very exciting, busy and trying, one for each of us, but in different ways. We sometimes get so busy that we don't fully realize those around us. Doctor Marsha Hamre, who has been at Shadle Park for only a few years, left us at the end of the semester. She's been fighting a battle against cancer, but still keeps her spirits up. The Yearbook staff would like to dedicate part of this section to her, because she affected so many people in a special way. Teaching the learning impaired, she always found time to be aware of those around. We hope that this will somehow show her that she is very special to us. In the words of Kathy Carroll, she is 'Loved by students, admired by colleagues.' Dr. Marsha Hamre will always remain an inspiration to us all. She blazed trails of courage and strength, love and compassion, responsibility and reality. The light of truth shines radiantly through her to brighten our path.

You really didn't do that, did you?

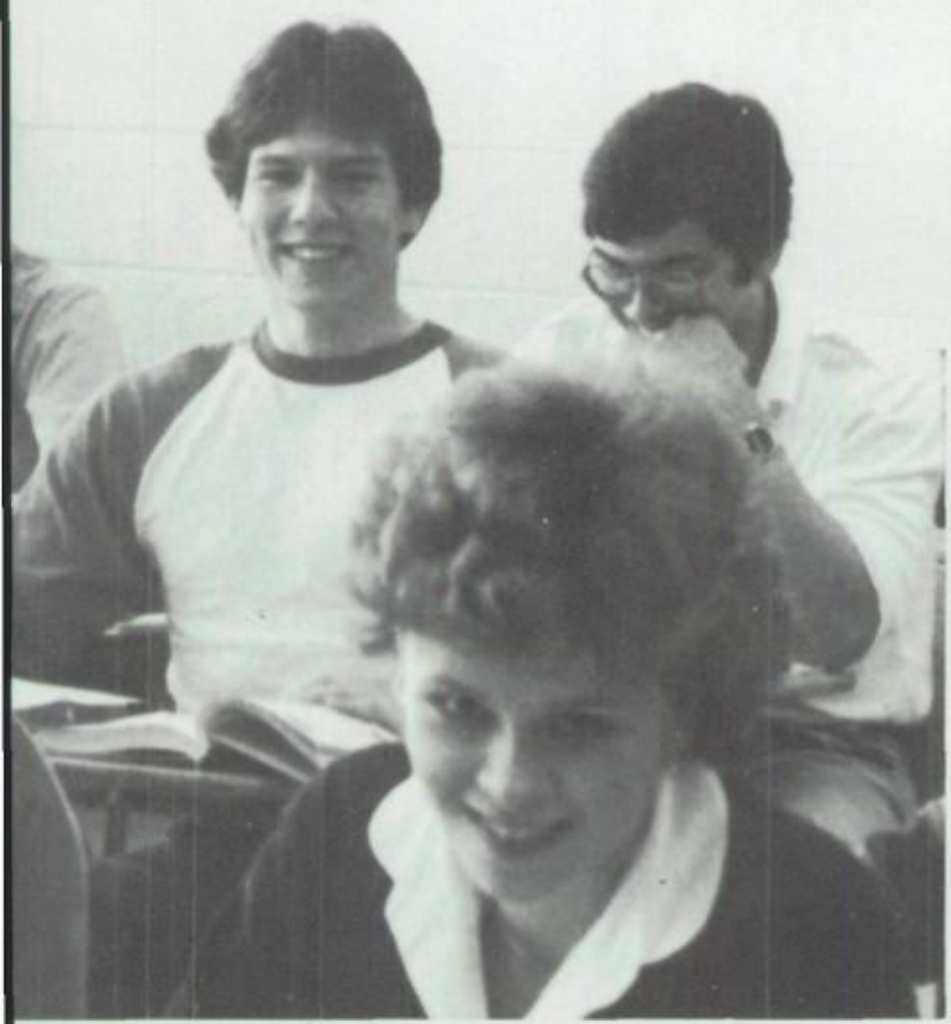
DON'T SETTLE FOR LESS!

1983 was a time to be ourselves



A D L
A R K

It was a year of tremendous spirit

1983 was the year to work together

Although it seems like just yesterday that we walked into Shadle as Sophomores, it has been three long adventurous years. And it is only now that the true struggle of life begins. It is time now for the Seniors to face the longest walk. I wish them all the luck in whatever they may do. And I hope that these past three years will never be forgotten and will be useful throughout their lives.

I wouldn't have been able to make this yearbook on my own, so I would like to thank my Mom for all her support and work throughout the past 12 years of my life, especially my Senior year. And all of my editors, especially Kelley Kimmet and Janelle Ruffcorn, the news photographers and some of the newspaper staff for all their extra long hours of hard work!

I would like to say a big thank you to Mrs. Lykes for giving me the support I needed throughout the makings of this book, and Mr. Wood for being ever so patient and understanding when I missed his class. I would also like to thank you, the student body, for making my three years at Shadle very memorable.
